Rechts Favor Coalition, Is Report

Indochina Partition Is Not to Their Liking, Some Officials Say at Geneva

Geneva, May 5 (AP)—Western sources said today they have received information indicating the Communists may favor the creation of coalition rule in Indochina rather than partition.

No high-level conversations between east and west have been held on the form of an eventual Indochinese settlement, they said. But an impression of the Red position was obtained through other contacts.

This estimate of the Communists between east and west have been held on the form of an eventual Indochinese settlement, they said. But an impression of the Red position was obtained through other contacts.

In 2-Day Recess

This estimate of the Communist plans came in a two-day recess of the plenary meetings of the Korean conference.

Western diplomats were reported ready to break off the Korean phase of the conference once they are sure the Communists will not modify their opposition to unifying elections supervised by the United Nations. A recess until Friday gives the delegates a chance to hold private consultations and clarify their positions.

Meanwhile, it was learned on good authority that President Eisenhower sent a letter to Secretary of State Dulles here last weekend saying he was disturbed over European press interpretation of one of his news conference statements last Thursday.

The President expressed hope at that time that some kind of "modus vivendi" for Indochina could be worked out at Geneva. The interpretation of many European papers was that he had failed to support Dulles' policy of toughness and had weakened the French position.

Not Case at All

The President was understood to have stated that this was not the case at all. Copies of his letter were given to French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden.

Bidault was keeping in close touch with the political crisis in Paris that stems from parliamentary unrest over the Indochina situation.

French sources also disclosed that the Russians apparently do not want to serve as an intermediary in preliminary negotiations between the French and the representatives of the Communist-led Vietnamese. This was seen as an effort to force direct contact, which the French wished to avoid.

Under Secretary of State Walter Bedell Smith, now heading the U. S. delegation, lunched with Canadian Foreign Secretary Lester B. Pearson and A. S. Watt, head of the Australian delegation, later in the day.

Chief Executive Gives Unqualified Support to Dulles and Anti-Red Efforts

Washington, May 5 (AP)—President Eisenhower said today the United States has suffered a loss of international prestige as a result of the row between Senator McCarthy and the Army.

His assertion was made at a news conference at which Eisenhower also issued a formal statement declaring his unqualified support for Secretary of State Dulles and for Dulles' efforts to form a united front against communism in Southeast Asia.

On these two main subjects, the President told newsmen:

McCarthy-Army: He knows of nothing which would cause him to lose confidence in Secretary of the Army Stevens so far as administration of the Army Department's business is concerned.

On that basis, Eisenhower said emphatically, he backs Stevens to the limit.

A reporter reminded Eisenhower that he had expressed the hope at his news conference last week that the Senate inquiry would be ended quickly.

The newsmen added that only yesterday the army counsel at the hearing objected to a Republican proposal to cut the hearings short.

Queried on Time

The President was asked, whether in his opinion, there was any administration conflict there and if he still favored a quick conclusion of the investigation.

Eisenhower said it was true that he had talked last week about concluding the hearings, and he added with a smile more attention had been given at the time to his manner in making the statement than to what he said.

This time, the President said, he was going to be careful about how he looked in discussing the McCarthy-Army inquiry.

The President then went on to say that in expressing the hope the hearing would be quickly concluded he meant there should be effective answers on the main issues of the dispute, and participation by the principals.

Hopes for Advantages

Eisenhower then said he wanted to say one more thing on the matter, and suggested he might have further questions on the subject.

Speaking solemnly and with great emphasis, the President said his only hope now is that America may derive from the hearings advantages which, as he put it, may be comparable to what we have suffered in international prestige and injury to national self respect.

Whether he has full confidence in Stevens.

The President replied, speaking in measured tones, that Stevens was carefully selected for his job and he knows of nothing which would cause him to lose confidence in Stevens from the standpoint of administering the affairs of the army.

Indochina: Dulles: The President said in his formal statement that the United States and most of the free nations with a direct interest in the security of southeast Asia are working on the problem of a united front with "a general sense of urgency."

"The countries of the area," the President said, "are working on the problem of a united front with 'a general sense of urgency.'"

Revolt Is Reported Against Paraguay; President Ousted

Buenos Aires, Argentina, May 5 (AP)—A Paraguayan radio broadcast said today a calvary division has revolted against Paraguay's government. The broadcast said other troops and police had rallied to the defense of the administration.

Government Declares State of Siege, Broadcast Says; Inaugurated in August

Other advices reaching here from Asuncion said rioting had broken out in the city and the government had declared a state of siege throughout the nation.

The President indicated that Paraguayan President Federico Chavez, 74, had been ousted. He was inaugurated last Aug. 15 for a 5-year term. He previously served almost four years of the unexpired term of ousted President Moises Lopez.

Engineers End Studies

New Brunswick, N. J., May 5 (AP)—Safety engineers of four states have concluded preliminary studies to increase safety factors on four toll superhighways, principally dealing with lighting of trucks. In two days of sessions at the New Jersey Turnpike headquarters, it was announced today, the engineers have prepared recommendations to be presented to the various authorities involved. The main recommendation was to increase the rear lighting of trucks to an equal candle power with that used on passenger cars. The rear lights of autos at present can be seen for a greater distance than those of trucks.

Heading for Shelter

Fixed Fights Tip Given by Markson

New York District Attorney Investigating Three Recent Matches

New York, May 5 (AP)—The New York Post, in a story written by Jimmy Cannon, said today that District Attorney Hogan is investigating three recent New York fights supposedly fixed by a syndicate of gamblers.

Two of the fights, said the post, were held in the Eastern Parkway, whose show is televised nationally every Monday, and the other in Madison Square Garden. The Garden shows are a Friday night TV fixture.

The New York State Athletic Commission is helping Hogan in the investigation, the Post added. It also said that a search to trap the leaders has been conducted secretly for some time.

The Post said that the original tip on the gambling syndicate was turned up by Harry Markson, managing director of the International Boxing Club. The club promotes shows in the garden and in various cities throughout the country.

(Markson is a former resident of Kingston, who entered the field of professional boxing promotion through a connection he made while sports editor of the Bronx Home News years ago.)

Markson turned the tip over to Robert Christenberry, chairman of the Athletic Commission, and Christenberry was impressed because the rumors coincided with reports his own agents had turned in, the Post said. The commissioner, who left yesterday for a world boxing meeting in Europe, called in Hogan.

The Post added that at least one principal in one of the fixed fights has had his license to box in New York state revoked.

Earlier, Secretary Stevens had testified a search of Pentagon files failed to show any copy of the letter.

Yesterday's session wound up in a whirl of excitement touched off by McCarthy's production of the letter.

Question Raised

It raised a lot of questions—including one from Sen. McClellan (D-Ark) as to whether "someone has violated the law." And most of the questions were left hanging.

Council Backs Viaduct Change

Dittus Is Angry at Tree Work

A complaint by John Dittus, Jr., of 42 Clifton avenue, at last night's Common Council meeting, that workmen on the tree-trim project of Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corp., were "indiscriminate," resulted in a resolution which was to be referred to Central Hudson officials today.

Dittus said he attended the session because after returning home from work yesterday and noting the results of a trim on a tree in front of his house, "to put it mildly, I blew my stack."

They cut out limbs from the middle growth, he said, "and they call that a trim. My tree, at present looks like a monstrosity."

Permission was given for the trim as had been done elsewhere in the city, he said, "But I expected them to trim the tree in a discriminate manner, not to butcher it."

The city, he said, only recently has given much attention to the preserving and beautifying of its trees. He recalled recent action for the spraying project to be done in conjunction with the Lions Club, and several months ago a civic group met with the Council in behalf of preserving trees in the Academy Green Park area and elsewhere in the city.

Cites Other Instances

Dittus indicated that an inspection of his neighborhood would reveal other instances of indiscriminate trimming, and he said one purpose in his appearance before the aldermen was to help prevent other such unsightly trimming elsewhere in the city.

Third Ward Alderman Edwin Radel offered a resolution calling for better "judgment and care in future phases of the program," and Alderman-at-Large Joseph Kelly instructed City Clerk Bernhard Kramer to see that Central Hudson officials got the resolution by today.

Calls for Replacement

The resolution noted that it is the intent of several civic organizations to take steps to protect and preserve the city's trees and encourage the planting of new trees, and that a city ordinance calls for the replacement of trees removed.

Some are of the opinion that the Central Hudson project is destroying a percentage of the trees, the resolution said, and Alderman Radel said because of his own observations, he is among them. He asked that Central Hudson be notified at once to see that the project proceeds with better judgment and care.

Bus Crackdown Sought

Newark, N. J., May 5 (AP)—A crackdown on operators of buses carrying New Jersey bingo players to illegal games in New York is under way by the Interstate Commerce Commission. An ICC spokesman said yesterday that federal law requires bus operators to file schedules and routings before trips are made. Under New Jersey law, the top prize in bingo for one night cannot exceed $1,000. New York's outlawed games reportedly are for much higher prizes, and therefore lure many Jerseyans across the river. The ICC spokesman said that it intends putting a halt to the practice of running "bingo specials" to New York, or between New Jersey cities, regardless of "how long it takes."

Will Be Reviewed

The court's verdict and sentence are headed for study by an army board of review, Dickinson's lawyer, Guy Emery, said he would appeal, if that board does not reverse the court martial action.

A few hours after the Dickinson court martial had returned its findings, the air force announced it would not lodge court martial charges against 83 of its men who allegedly made false germ warfare confessions or were suspected of misconduct while in Red prison camps.

First Ever Held

Dickinson's trial was the first ever held under a section of the military code of justice which makes it a crime for a U. S. serviceman to give an enemy information for use against a prison comrade.

The army reportedly has been investigating other former American prisoners of the Reds, men dubbed "Progressives" by other POWs, for allegedly cooperating with their Red captors. The Dickinson trial was the first.

U. S. Court Martial Rules Dickinson Is Guilty of Charges

Corporal Faces 10-Years, Dishonorable Discharge—Air Force Drops Germ Angles

Washington, May 5 (AP)—Cpl. Edward S. Dickinson faced 10 years in prison today after his conviction on collaborating-with-the-enemy charges in a case that may set a precedent for army handling of other Americans under suspicion for their conduct while war prisoners in Korea.

An eight-man army court martial yesterday returned a guilty verdict on charges that Dickinson, a 23-year-old farm boy from the southwest Virginia hamlet of Cracker's Neck, dealt unlawfully with his Red Chinese captors and informed the Reds about the escape plans of a buddy, former Pfc. Edward M. Gaither of Philadelphia.

The court reached its decision after more than 10 hours of deliberation, then retired and later brought in a sentence of 10 years in prison at hard labor and a dishonorable discharge. Dickinson could have drawn life imprisonment.

Mayor Asks Counsel Go Before PSC

Stang Would Extend Washington Avenue to Thruway With Span Over Creek

A first definite move to seek elimination of the Washington avenue viaduct and provide a better western approach to the city was taken by the Common Council last night, when, through adoption of a resolution, it supported a proposal submitted by Mayor Frederick H. Stang.

Mayor Stang's letter to the aldermen asked them to authorize Corporation Council James J. Abernethy "to bring the proper proceeding before the Public Service Commission for the elimination of the viaduct and making the crossing at grade."

The aldermen also authorized $30,000 in bond issues for three sewer projects, deferred action to abandon the present police radio system in favor of leasing from the N. Y. Telephone Co., a "radio-telephone" service, and as was announced before the session, did not consider the proposal to set up a sanitary land fill project in the fifth ward.

Smith 'Disturbed'

Alderman Arthur J. Smith, eighth ward, in a special statement, expressed himself as "disturbed at the attitude of some property owners of the eighth ward who will not negotiate to sell, lease or grant privilege to land to create a small children's playground." He said he was determined to do something about it and declared, "The fight has just begun."

Mayor Stang's letter on the viaduct said: "At the time the arterial route plan was submitted to you for your approval, there was considerable discussion relative to the viaduct and how it will fit into the picture when the thruway is completed."

This, he said, "as we know, has long been a bottleneck and it should be eliminated. It is my thought, and I respectfully suggest, therefore, that your honorable body adopt appropriate legislation authorizing the corporation council, for and on behalf of the city of Kingston, to bring the proper proceeding before the Public Service Commission for the elimination of the viaduct and making that crossing at grade."

Would Make Application

"It is my belief that, if this were accomplished, we could then properly make application to the thruway authority to have Washington avenue extended to the thruway with a new bridge over the Esopus creek as an amendment to the arterial plan.

"This improvement, if completed, will not only materially facilitate the flow of traffic in and out of the uptown area, but will tend to beautify one of the important entrances to our city."

He asked the aldermen to give this matter serious consideration at as early a date as possible, and they acted upon it immediately last night through adoption of a resolution authorizing the corporation council to bring the proceeding before the PSC.

Of the $30,000 authorized for sewer work, $19,000 is for a project on Foxhall avenue between Flatbush avenue and O'Neil street, and it is aimed at relieving a surcharge into the gravity system in the second and ninth wards.

A sanitary sewer is to be built on Mary's avenue from West O'Reilly street 350 feet southward at an estimated cost of $8,000 and another is to be built on South Pine street, from the railroad tracks to the end of the street at an estimated cost of $3,000. Property owners pay 75 and the city 25 per cent of the latter two, because they are on petition of the owners.

Recess Is Taken

A long committee recess preceded legislation on the bond issues. Democratic members of the council also indicated opposition to the proposed rental of a "radio-telephone" system for the police department, and when it was proposed that the aldermen meet in a recessed session to consider it, Ninth Ward Alderman William K. Bodenweber, said: "Why not vote on it tonight? I am not going to vote for it anyway."

The aldermen then decided to adjourn instead of moving to recess.

The police communication proposal called for the sale of the present radio system at $1,008 (Continued on Page 20, Col. 2).

Mental Cases Increase 3,000 Yearly in State; Psychiatrists Outline Three Leading Reasons

Former Queen and Husband

Former Queen Narriman, 20, divorced wife of exiled King Farouk of Egypt, stands with her new husband, Dr. Adham El Nakib, at her villa in Heliopolis, a Cairo suburb, the day after their wedding. Couple was wed May 3 at the villa with only a few relatives present. The bridegroom, 27, is an Alexandria doctor. (AP Photo by radio from Cairo).

Albany, May 5 (AP)—The number of patients in the state's mental hospitals, doubled in the last 20 years, goes on climbing steadily upward at the rate of 3,000 a year.

There is no sign of where—or whether—the spiral will stop.

One of every 10 New Yorkers can expect to spend some part of his life in a state mental institution. It now takes 12 cents out of every tax dollar paid to the state to care for the mentally ill.

The temptation is to blame the pace and pressure of the modern age for the crowded conditions and the soaring costs that are the main headaches of the state's mental hygiene department. But its experts say that cannot be proved.

In 1933, the state was caring for 60,000 patients in 19 institutions. The patient population has mounted steadily, year by year, to 112,000 in 27 institutions at the end of 1953.

The psychiatrists say that does not mean necessarily that there is more mental illness now. They claim it shows only that more people are going to the hospitals. These, they say, are the reasons why:

1. The state's population is growing, and people are living longer. More and more patients are being admitted for ailments of old age—hardening of the arteries in the brain, and senility.

2. Houses and apartments are shrinking in size. Some of the mentally ill could be cared for at home in the big houses of yesterday, but a person who is even mildly psychotic can be difficult to handle in a three-room flat.

3. More and more people are accepting the idea of sending a relative to an institution when he is mentally ill. And it is growing "respectable" to send a relative to a state hospital, where family pride once balked at taking "charity."

The state charges patients according to their ability to pay. The fees at private institutions run up from $125 a week. The mental hygiene department claims its patients get care equal to that at private hospitals.

It costs the taxpayers $1,132 to maintain one patient in a mental hospital for a year. The psychiatrists say they have no reason to believe the number of new inmates will taper off.

This year the mental hygiene department's budget is 138 million dollars. Add 30,000 patients over the next 10 years, and the department would need 172 million by 1964—a jump of nearly (Continued on Page 20, Col. 7)

Seaway Plan Assailed

Albany, May 5 (P)—A private taxpayers' group told congressmen today that construction of a St. Lawrence Seaway would "strike a damaging blow at business and employment" in New York state. In letters to every New York member of the House of Representatives, the Citizens Public Expenditure Survey, Inc. said jobs and commerce would be lost at the ports of New York city, Buffalo and Albany if the seaway were built. In New York city yesterday, the New York Commerce and Industry Assn. urged the state delegation to Congress to vote against the measure in its present form.

Welding Spending Reported

Buffalo, May 5 (P)—The president of the American Welding Society said last night that more than 614 million dollars was spent in this country last year on welding equipment and supplies. Fred L. Plummer, speaking in the society's spring meeting, said welding had "come of age" in the past quarter century.

Local VFW Places Two in Top Posts In Valley Groups

At the meeting of Hudson Valley Counties Council, and Ladies' Auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Sunday in the home of Joyce-Schirick Post 1386, on Delaware avenue, two local residents were honored by election and installation to leadership of the organizations.

In the balloting for commander of the veterans council, Ralph G. Scism, 24 East Chestnut street, was chosen, and Mrs. Ethel Jordan, 113 Spring street, was elected president of the Hudson valley auxiliary.

Scism, the new leader of the council composed of 17 VFW posts in Ulster and Orange counties, is a veteran of World War 2, having served in Alaska, Aleutian Islands and European theatres of operations.

Mrs. Jordan is the wife of William H. Jordan, a World War 1 veteran of the 27th Division, and former National Guard lieutenant. A son, Jack was in the navy during World War 2. She is a past president of Joyce-Schirick Auxiliary.

Panels of officers to serve with the two new leaders of the two-county organizations for the ensuing year are:

Harold Steiger, Port Jervis, senior vice commander. John Kilgannon, Kerhonkson, junior vice commander. Raymond Meyer, Kingston, quartermaster. James Donahue, Newburgh, chaplain. Bernard McCutcheon, Saugerties, judge advocate. Cleveland Traphagen, Ellenville, surgeon. Alex Gombay, Newburgh, trustee three years.

Installing officer was Donald Scism, Kingston, past commander of Hudson Valley Counties Council, and brother of the new commander.

Officers of Auxiliary

Betty Scism, Kingston, senior vice president. Ruth DeVilbus, Newburgh, junior vice president. Kathryn Crawford, Middletown, treasurer. Ida Kilgannon, Kerhonkson, chaplain. Ruth DeBorja, Saugerties, conductress. Mabel Gelnick, Newburgh, guard. Edna O'Brien, Middletown, secretary. Stella Terwilliger, Middletown, patriotic instructor. Helen Arold, Saugerties, historian. Gertrude Huston, Newburgh; Lillian Shultis, Kingston; Hazel Drewes, Saugerties; Margaret Cox, Fort Montgomery, color bearers.

Jean Johnston, Newburgh; Evelyn Miller, Middletown and Sarah Lewis, Saugerties, trustees.

Committee Chairmen

Committee chairmen were named as follows: Sally Lewis, hospital; Ida Kilgannon, rehabilitation; Lillian Shultis, Americanism; Mable Gilnick, legislative and Betty Scism, publicity.

Installing officers were Edna O'Brien, past counties auxiliary president, assisted by Sally Lewis.

RE-ENLISTMENT DECLINE

Secretary of the Air Force Harold E. Talbot said recently that the security of the nation is being threatened by what he called an alarming drop in re-enlistments. He gave as reasons for this dissatisfaction on the part of service personnel with pay rates and a feeling that soldiers' efforts are not being appreciated.

For some time there has been increasing discontent among servicemen with the fact that pay scales in industry and in civil service have been raised several times while service pay has been raised once. In addition the taking away of fringe benefits has served to impair morale.

If as Secretary Talbot says the decline in the re-enlistment rate is having a bad effect on our security something should be done to remedy the situation. In time of war civilians naturally pay more attention to their armed forces. When the fighting stops and most of the civilians turned soldiers return to their homes the country has a tendency to lose sight of the armed forces.

Service people who make a career in the armed forces are essential. It is around the hard core of professional military personnel that combat divisions can be formed with volunteer or conscripted soldiers. The professionals train the temporary soldiers, sailors and airmen and their experience bolsters the latter.

Congress should be quick to take every necessary step to make the services as attractive as possible to the men they need.

In Indianapolis a man was fired because he failed to comply with his employer's order to shave off his moustache. All of us at one time or another have felt that our bosses were trying to split hairs.

NEW MAJOR INDUSTRY

In listing the major industries of the United States, do not omit crime. There were 2,159,081 major crimes committed in the nation last year, says the Federal Bureau of Investigation. This was six per cent more than the 1952 figures, while the population in the same period increased only four per cent. Since 1950 population has increased five per cent, and crime 20.

Some of the breakdowns are interesting. The popular notion in some quarters that the country is more virtuous than the cities runs up against the fact that last year city crime rose 4.5 per cent, but rural 9.6.

Robbery and theft were at their peak between October and December, perhaps because of the approach of cold weather and Christmas. This includes automobile theft, of which there were 226,530 instances, over 11,000 more than in 1952. In more than 13,000 cases the stolen cars were not recovered.

The cause of this dismaying increase in crime is anybody's guess. Two major factors are unwillingness on the part of the taxpayers to spend money for crime prevention and detection and lax law enforcement.

How many are the man-made things which man might better do over again!

RED CHINA AND OPIUM

Red China was responsible for the greatest amount of illegal opium seized and reported to the United Nations last year. Of all the raw opium seized, one quarter came from Communist China; also more than one-half of the illegal prepared opium.

Throughout the world Communists are pushing the idea that the free countries are doing Red China an injustice by withholding recognition. Yet a recognized government has obligations to other nations as well as to its own people. In many ways, the aggressions in Korea and Indo-China for instance, Red China has failed to accept those responsibilities. The great quantity of illegal opium emanating from there indicates a lack of concern on the part of the Reds for the problem of dealing with this evil. It is not outside the realm of possibility that they actually encourage the drug traffic or at least the unspoken consent to those who carry it on.

THE WHITE MAN'S BURDEN

In the 19th Century, Rudyard Kipling sang: "Take up the White Man's burden — Send forth the best ye breed — Go build your sons to exile To serve your captives' need; To wait, in heavy harness, On fluttered folk and wild — Your new-caught, sullen peoples, Half-devil and half-child."

This became for Europe, and to some extent for the United States, an ideal, slogan, and political theory. The "White Man's Burden" was variously interpreted. Not only soldiers and business men but religious missionaries and doctors, social workers and teachers spread to the remotest corners of strange countries, learning languages, studying customs, acquainting their own people with the institutions of others and teaching the natives what they knew.

It is an interesting commentary on the competence of these early White Men who assumed this burden that the very best book on China ever to have been written, the source of so much later research or plagiarism, is still "The Middle Kingdom," by S. Wells Williams, professor of Chinese Language and Literature at Yale and a missionary to China. Fundamental works on other Asiatic civilizations were produced by German, British and American scholars of a thoroughness not usual at the present time.

That "White Man's burden" is rapidly being discarded and will soon be no more. The historic fact is that the European is being driven out of those countries which he opened to the rest of the world. The European has been driven from all of China except Hongkong and Formosa. He has lost prestige in the Philippines and Indonesia. He is without position in India or Pakistan, and whatever authority he ever had in such countries as Afghanistan has disappeared entirely.

In Indochina, the French are on their last legs, already having lost an economic empire in Western China, in Yunnan, Kweichow and Kwangsi. If Indochina falls, Thailand and Burma will not only be imperiled, but the "White Man's" prestige will be so diminished as to be unimportant. Only in Malaya do the British seem to be able to hold their own.

The British and Germans vied for strength and influence in the Moslem world. The Germans have, of course, been driven from the field by failure in war; the British have done no better although they had assumed that they were victorious in war. Only the oil business of Iran and Kuwait and such places provides a bridge between Moslem and British and American, but the cultural influences of the West are weak in most of these countries. China, for instance, they have disappeared as though they had never existed although from 1807, when Robert Morrison arrived in China, to 1945, they seemed so important, at any rate, to the Westerner.

In Africa, the same historic process is at work. Whether it be Moslem or Negro, the movement is toward cultural independence even more than economic and political independence. Such influences as UNESCO and the Point IV Program have had to adjust themselves to the trend of resistance to the culture of the West. The burden is falling off the "White Man's" shoulders.

The Russian Communists are not responsible for this development. Gandhi was influenced more by Tolstoy than by Marx or Lenin; Sun Yat-sen was influenced more by Thomas Jefferson and the American Constitution than by anything that came out of Russia.

This movement toward cultural independence, which became translated into political independence, is to be directly traced to the men and women from the United States, Great Britain, Germany and other European countries who picked up "The White Man's Burden" and educated the native to Western concepts of life, including nationalism, the assurance of ancient cultures and the historic lust for political independence. European and American universities played a great role in this.

The Soviet Universal State found these movements and used them. I witnessed this. I was with Sun Yat-sen from 1919 to 1924, long enough to become aware of his cultural roots; they were American. I saw him accept Russian cooperation because it suited his purposes. Out of that beginning resulted the conquest of China by Russia by maneuver rather than war. It was the easiest and cheapest conquest of 400,000,000 people in the whole of human history.

This needs to be understood with regard to the Indochina War. (Copyright, 1954, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

That Body of Yours

MOVING TO CURE ALLERGY AND HAY FEVER

One of the first articles on allergy (being sensitive to certain substances in the air or to foods, feathers, house dust) was a story in a popular magazine. The article told of a family who had to move from place to place because of allergy and asthmatic symptoms. It was only after they had moved a number of times that it was found that it was the fur of the beloved old family cat (which always moved with them) that was the cause of the asthma and frequent head colds.

That these frequent moves are not always necessary, even though allergy is the underlying cause, is stated by Dr. L. H. Crip in Essentials of Allergy in an editorial in the Journal of the American Medical Association. He states that although it is true that allergy may be a cause of symptoms in some cases, "overenthusiastic and thoughtless application of this principle often does great harm. For instance, the removal of household pets may make it unnecessary for the whole family to move to a new climate."

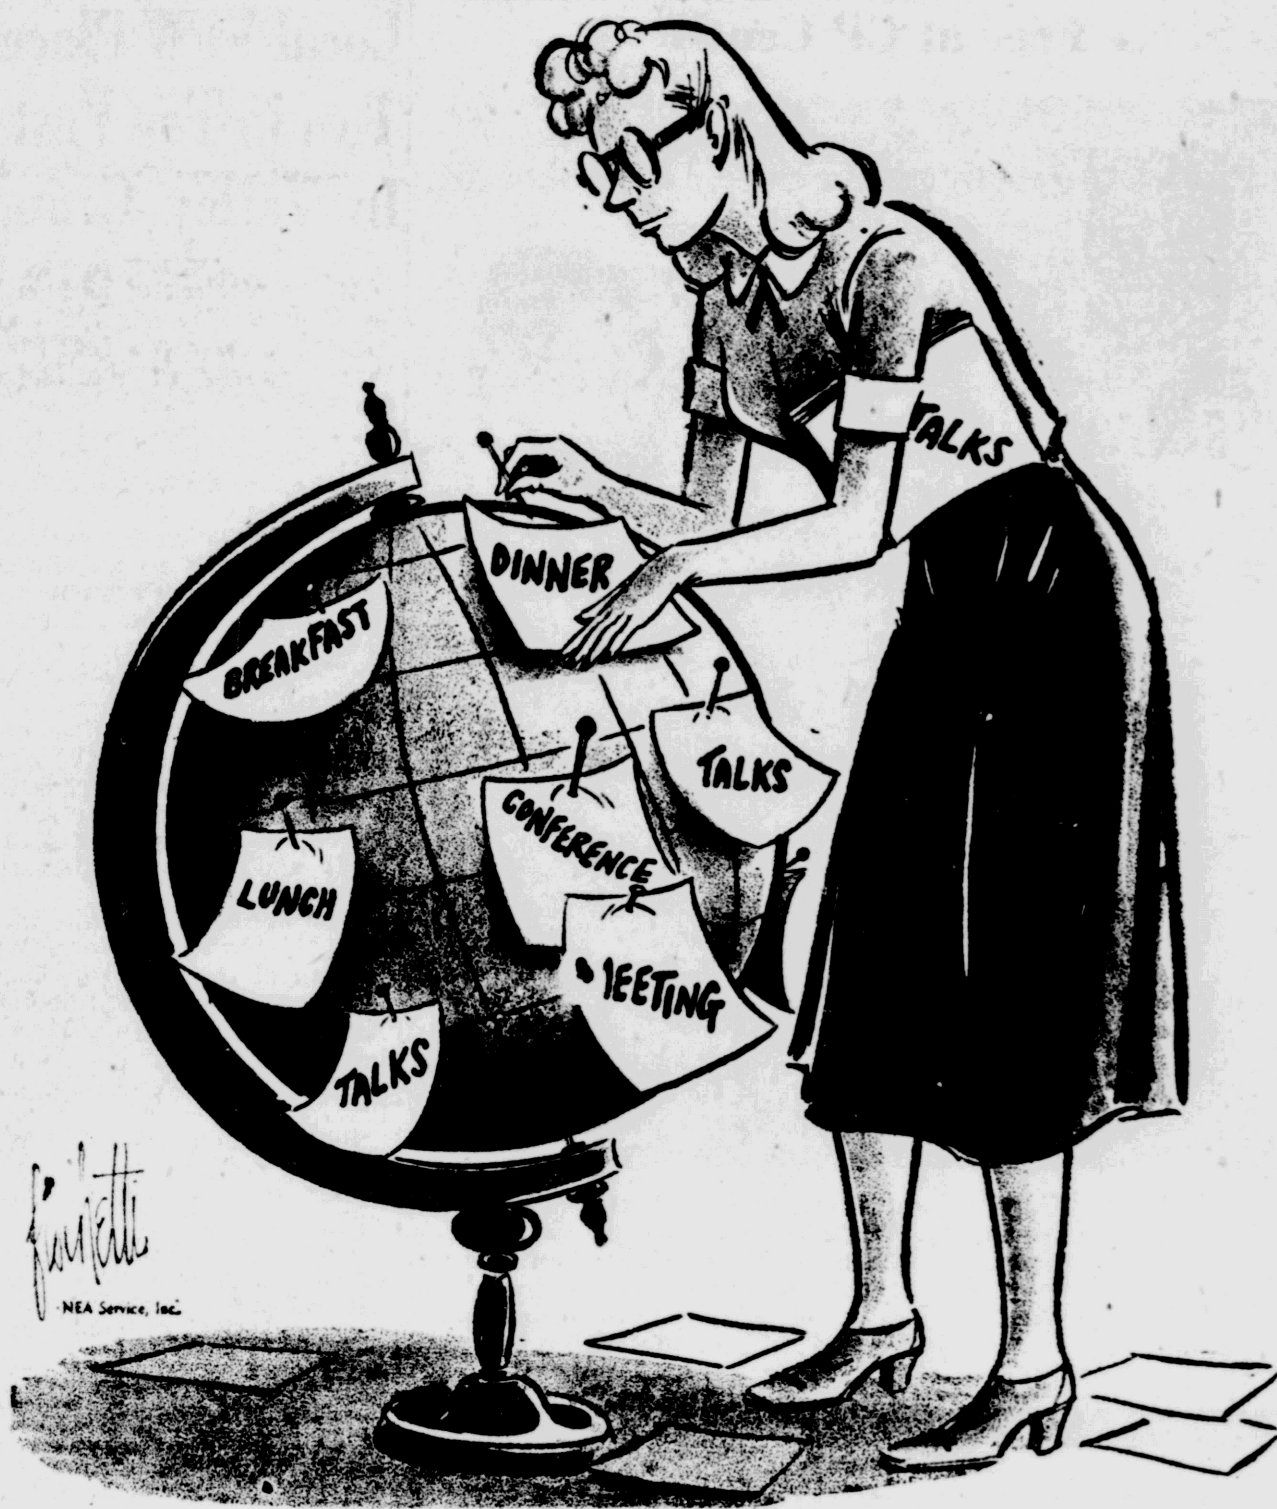

As pointed out by Dr. F. C. Metzger, in The Climatic Treatment of Hay Fever, the mirage of climate as a curative agent for disease has long been pursued by physicians and the public. Although some cases are improved by moving to a new climate, more are not improved or even made worse. Not infrequently whole families, greatly to their disadvantage, are torn from their financial and social roots in the interest of the individual sufferer. Thus a 10-year-old boy in a city in Michigan had a severe flare-up of his asthma. A local physician suggested that the boy would have a better chance for life in Arizona and as a matter of fact, the Arizona climate agrees with the majority of asthmatic and hay fever victims. I myself know of two physicians who got rid of asthma and hay fever after a fairly long stay in Arizona. Fortunately, they were able to support themselves by their profession which may not be true of many families as in the case of the boy from Michigan. Dr. Crip points out that sending asthmatics to any one place without having allergy tests first made is not fair to the patient or to the patient's family. What is the suggestion of Dr. Crip and Metzger? "A greater effort should be made in every case positively to identify the causative allergen and to find a suitable treatment that could be applied without a change in residence."

Allergy — being sensitive to various foods and other substances — is a very common condition. Washington (NEA) — Here's a government daisy chain to follow. It concerns the old "section 608" Federal Housing Administration scandals now being investigated by Congress, the FBI and nearly everybody else.

There was nothing illegal about any of the profits reaped by multi-unit housing developers under this law. They merely built their projects for less money than the amount they borrowed to finance the operation on a government guaranteed mortgage. They pocketed the difference as a windfall profit.

The government has no chance of getting any of this money back. But the government can collect income taxes on these profits. If the government collects only capital gains taxes on these profits, it will get only 26 per cent of the windfall. If the government can collect straight corporation income taxes on the profits, it might get 32 per cent or more of the windfall.

If the builders had not made these profits — now estimated at $65 million on 1149 projects — the government would not have been able to collect any taxes on them at all.

The U. S. dairy products price-support program completed a cycle of silliness the other day. That was when Department of Agriculture announced still another program to offset the bad effects of all the other programs now in effect.

As everyone knows, the government now supports dairy prices by purchasing surplus cheese, butter or butterfat and dry milk solids. These are the only forms in which perishable milk and cream can be safely stored for considerable periods of time without spoilage.

Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson has given Congress some new facts on the Korean ammunition shortage, which was a major scandal in 1952.

One investigation disclosed that a certain type of shell which was critically short in Korea had been stockpiled in the U. S. to the extent of three million rounds. It was an error in accounting.

When copper got short in the U. S., it was decided to make 105-mm. shell casings out of steel. This had an added advantage because steel casings could be re-loaded and reused five times.

This salvage plan would have worked out fine, Secretary Wilson reported, except that the officer in charge of the port in Korea wasn't told of it. On his own responsibility he decided that the 105-mm. steel casings should not be returned to the U. S., and he ordered them smashed up.

Testimony before the House Appropriations Committee reveals that the 300,000 American troops now in Europe have 200,000 dependents — wives and children — living with them. In addition to the high cost of housing all these people, educating the children and providing medical care, there is the larger problem of their security in case of war.

It is estimated that it would be just as costly to evacuate these civilian dependents as it would be to send five divisions to Europe.

Chances Seem Bright to Repair Rift Between U. S. and Britain Over United Action

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Geneva, May 5 — Efforts are being made to repair the cleavage that developed 10 days ago between Great Britain and the United States, and it may be said there is a fair chance of getting back on the track of allied unity.

Whatever the basic cause of the misunderstanding, the fact is that a painful impression of disunity was created upon the minds of American officials both here and in Washington when the British cabinet seemed to veer away from the principle of "united action" which Secretary Dulles had carried away as approved after his last visit to London just before the Geneva Conference began.

It is most discouraging to read here the erroneous interpretations which have appeared in some American newspapers concerning the efforts of Secretary Dulles. It is just as wrong to say he lost his leverage here because of what various Republican senators back home were saying as to argue that an alleged American desire to intervene immediately in Indo-China was rebuffed by the British. What went wrong was the timing. There was a sudden reversal in London due to the discovery — after the original commitment to Mr. Dulles was given — that the conference of Asian prime ministers in Ceylon was about to meet and that any implementation of a collective-action policy might thereupon muddy the waters there. As it happened, while the resolutions adopted at Ceylon were by no means palatable, they were not as bad as might have resulted if the British government had not exercised a restraining influence.

What some American readers perhaps do not realize is that the United States came here with a constructive and far-reaching policy of collective security to be worked out for Southeast Asia and that the departure of Mr. Dulles, far from being a retreat as the Communists are picturing it, was really an important step on his part toward a reinvigoration of the broad American program from the vantage point of Washington rather than Geneva. There are better opportunities in Washington than there are here for consultation between the various nations concerned on a specific project like the Southeastern Asia Alliance, especially the military aspects.

America's policy has for its object the building up of a deterrent factor which is designed to bring peace rather than war to Southeast Asia. But it requires a firm hand and a resoluteness of spirit, to which political leaders on both sides of the aisle in Congress can contribute a great deal by studying the basic principles involved rather than going off half-cocked with criticism of the piecemeal details. These mistakenly portray the administration as being eager to get into the Indo-China War but being prevented either by a British cabinet rejection of such proposals or by the lukewarm attitude of American public opinion. The truth is Secretary Dulles is working on a plan for the Southeast Asian problem which, viewed in either its long-range or short-range aspects, can become a historic move in the world toward assuring peace for a large area of the earth's surface. American public opinion, of course, is not ready for such concrete proposals as the submission to Congress of a joint resolution empowering the President to use our armed forces to maintain peace in Southeast Asia. There is as yet no understanding in America that the checkmating of aggression in Southeast Asia can have as direct a bearing on the safety of the United States as the American policy of repelling aggression in Korea was a step taken for the protection of our interests in Japan and the Philippines.

Just because the British cabinet hesitated and an epicurean plan of the problem — the rise and fall of military fortunes in Dien Bien Phu — got the headlines is no reason to underrate the main value of the Dulles policy. Though stymied last week, it now bids fair to progress toward logical and deserved acceptance.

It should be borne in mind that if the thesis is accepted that military force is the only language the Communists understand, then the assembling of local allies in and around Indo-China is of crucial importance, whether consummated next week or next year. For the relevant fact is that, when America and her allies act in unison to plan a military alliance for Southeast Asia, the Communists are put on notice. It would be better for them to agree to a withdrawal of their forces and a peaceful solution now in Indo-China than to assume, as they mistakenly do today, that the western allies have weakened and that the Dulles plan was torpedoed in Paris or London or both.

The truth is collective action for collective security is irreplaceable as a policy. Its acceptance is inevitable by our allies, and the Geneva Conference before many days have passed will reflect this very important turn of events as American leadership once more comes to the fore.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

New York, May 4 — Arthur J.

Goldsmith, the mysterious political agent who lurks in the Waldorf Tower, was interviewed during the war by a detective from a government intelligence agency regarding Francis Adams Henson, also known as Liggett, the educational director of the United American Workers of the AF of L. This is an almost imperceptible, standby union of the AF of L, which issued charters to taxicab union racketeers in the city of New York. Six of these charters, held by Johnny Dio, a known ex-convict, now serving another hitch in prison, were revoked a few days ago after a delay of about two years since the expose.

Henson is an old campus Communist who also worked as a gum-shoe investigator in Washington during the war, mainly for a thing called Union for Democratic Action. His brand of communism was the Trotsky line. His leaders were Jay Lovestone and Irving Brown, stooges of Dave Dubinsky, of the Garment Workers' Union, who also have connections with the sinister Central Intelligence Agency of the Washington government.

Apologists for Lovestone and Brown insist that they have ceased to be Bolsheviks with a declared purpose of destroying the American government by bloody revolution, but none of these defenders has put forth a single word of proof of apostasy in more than two years of controversy. Nevertheless, President Eisenhower has publicly endorsed Brown's clandestine interference in the affairs of more or less friendly nations in Europe and the Orient, financed by our money and handouts from Dubinsky's union.

And the President also signed a mysterious testimonial book gotten up by Congressman Hugh Scott, of Philadelphia, and Clifford P. Case, of New Jersey, and Sherman Adams, assistant to the President, stating that Goldsmith was a fine citizen. Scott and Case have seemed ashamed of their part in this, for nothing can draw a straight-forward statement from them of the text or of the provocation for it.

You probably are at least as good a citizen as Arthur J. Goldsmith, but the odds are many millions to one that you have no such citation nor feel the lack of one. Jim Hagerty, the President's secretary, said that if Ike did sign it, it was just a casual, hurried act in a busy day shortly after the election.

However, the fact keeps bobbing up that two brothers of the President, Milton, a reasonable facsimile of a Roosevelt New Dealer, and Arthur, the Kansas City banker, both made connections with Goldsmith, or vice versa, about that time. They had rooms adjacent to Goldsmith's secret political headquarters in the Waldorf Tower. That would seem to be an innocent coincidence but all concerned have acted as though they had something to hide.

To that we may add the fact that Goldsmith, from his tower, has been trying to pick senators for the people of other states by housing money into their primaries and elections. His revealed purpose in Nevada is to get an "international" in place of Pat McCarran, Dem., who is anti-Communist and a constitutional nationalist.

I did not intend to develop in today's discussion the whole pattern of the interlocking forces at work in a single scheme. But that will come because half a dozen government agencies have been bumping into one another in separate quests. The FBI is way ahead of the rest in factual information, especially on Herman Greenspan, the old underworld press-agent of the Bugsy Siegel mob in Las Vegas and international weapons smuggler, but the FBI doesn't act on its information unless it has strong evidence of a crime.

The agency which interviewed Goldsmith about Henson has been dissolved, but some of its papers got into the hands of souvenir hunters and they disclose fascinating relationships.

The agent's report said Goldsmith said Henson was a "militant liberal of left-wing tendencies" and a "left-wing Socialist." That is a mild description of the political character of a campus Red from the University of Virginia, later an agitator at Penn State, who openly identified himself with the blood-thirsty Trotsky element which broke with Stalin over Stalin's determination to get Russia hog-tied before he started in on us.

Lovestone, Brown and Henson wanted blood in our streets right away and the record is not weakened by President Eisenhower's political affection for Lovestone, Brown and the New Deal Democrat-Socialist, Dave Dubinsky.

Goldsmith said he first met Henson when he, Goldsmith, was working to prevent American participation in the 1936 Olympic games in Germany. Henson did

"publicity work" for Goldsmith's committee. Goldsmith didn't have much confidence in Henson's judgment but said he was "a patriotic man of integrity and high purpose" and "an industrious and capable investigator."

The report said Goldsmith said Henson "conducted investigations in connection with certain 'isolationist' senators and representatives for various committees which Goldsmith is associated with, mentioning Rep. Ham Fish as one of the investigated by the subject (Henson)."

An agent went to Dr. Reinhold Niebuhr, of Union Theological Seminary, who said he had known Henson when they both were associated with the Union for Democratic Action during the war. It happens that Goldsmith, also, was in this thing and it also happens that the Union for Democratic Action worked through a thing called Market Analysis, Inc., to smear Standard Oil of N. J., with charges that S.O., N.J., was holding back from the American nation certain German secrets about synthetic rubber.

S.O., N.J., took a bad beating in the campaign, furthered by the left-wing scandal papers of the east and by Drew Pearson. And the agency discovered a great mass of telegrams and photographed them, between Henson and one "Sandy" in New York, who was the manager of Market Analysis. Sandy's real identity is Sanford Griffith and he has an interesting background, too, but probably this is as much as you can handle for today.

I am telling you something, though. The dam is about to burst on this story, and Goldsmith knows it.

Think It Through

By EDWARD F. HUTTON

Neighbor, let's get behind a move to shake out the injustices in the Government's tax structure and restore fair play.

I refer to the constant tax preying on goods purchased for "Mr. Everyman"—those hidden taxes that pyramid the costs of almost every piece of merchandise sold.

I refer, also, to the excise taxes on such items as railroad fares and telephone service. These taxes were instituted in wartime to discourage needless travel and use of telephones. The reasons for such taxation have long since been obliterated but the tax lingers on. Why?

I refer, too, to the gobbledy-gook language in so-called income tax "instructions," which merely confuses.

I realize it is too much to ask for the return of a good nickel beer or 5-cent cigar. But we can have sanity and justice in the way in which we ask our people to pay for government. How about it, Neighbor?

Do You Remember

By SOPHIE MILLER

Deweese W. DeWitt of the Homeseekers' Loan Association gave me an interesting newspaper of old Rondout. It is called Morning Courier dated Thursday, Feb. 1, 1883. The paper is in excellent condition. One item reads: "Mr. J. W. Selzmann of Ponckhockie will today commence placing a couple kinds of new bread before the people of Kingston. They are called the New England and O. K. Model Bread, and from the appearance we certainly think them good." Another news item reads: "George B. Merritt and Co., and Myer Weil, announce the establishment of that firm at 161 The Strand. The new store is placed under the charge of James G. Van Keuren, one of the firm of George B. Merritt and Co., as experienced and capable a dry goods merchant as we have in this city today. Weil enters today in the employ of George B. Merritt & Co., at the Rondout store. . . . Their new branch at Rondout will be conducted in the same manner as their main store, will be well filled with a fine stock of goods; and cannot fail to secure a prosperous and ever increasing trade." I remember his son, Dave Weil, in the yard goods years later on lower Broadway.

Of course the boats, barges and canal folks brought a lot of business to Rondout as their families had to stock up for their trips. Also the two ferries were running or people on the other side of the river and creek found other means to come over here and do their shopping. I remember when on Saturday night one could hardly walk through the crowds in Rondout and those were the years when business was starting to go uptown, so I can imagine what it was in earlier years. Some of the largest firms dealing with boatmen were down in Rondout which brought shoppers from up and down the Hudson to this section. I see a regular advertisement of

John W. Selzmann of Sycamore street, Rondout, which says: "Ponckhockie Bakery. I offer a large and fine stock of fresh bread, pie, cake, rolls and pretzels. Fresh rolls every morning a specialty." So no doubt the Ponckhockie section all along the creek was a busy thriving business section also.

One advertisement of the Knapp, Druggist and Apothecary shop list the address as 172 Strand. "Remember the little Drug Store in the middle of the block, front painted yellow," advertisement advises. He lists surgical appliances, sponges, brushes, combs, perfumery and druggist sundries, all the popular and genuine patent medicines, Homeopathic medicines. Also wines and liquors of foreign and domestic brand. Imported and native cigars. May Flower tobacco, single or by the gross. "There is no longer such a listing as 172 Strand. So I take it it must have been near 180 E. Strand which is listed in 1950 Kingston Directory as Wadsworth Maritime Corp. yard.

Years ago it seems there were stores which dealt mostly in teas and coffees. Like the Bains Tea and Coffee Co. which advised that on or about Jan. 1, 1883, they were moving from their old stand, under the Mansion House to store at the time occupied by Tracey N. Stebbins in Cornell Row, Union avenue (now Broadway). They sold "fresh roasted coffees and pure teas, ranging in prices such as: coffees from 15 cents, upward, and teas 25 cents a pound upward." In fact they even gave useful and ornamental gifts to their tea and coffee customers in those days.

Excavation Drier
An inventor has perfected an excavation drier for contractors plagued with water-filled holes. The device consists of a series of probes driven into the ground near the excavation. The probes such moisture from the ground and thus prevent water from seeping into the excavation. It works, unattended, even over week ends.

Letter Asks Change

New York, May 5 (AP)—Nearly 4,000 east coast tugboat men have been asked to approve pulling their union out of the old International Longshoremen's Assn. (I.L.A.) and joining John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers (I.M.W.). A letter from the general manager of the union's big New York local, mailed with ballots yesterday, said Lewis had promised to finance a coast-to-coast drive for new members among boatmen of all kinds. Ballots were sent to union members working along the coast from Boston to Newport

News, Va. The returned votes will be counted May 28.

Watson Gets Award

New York, May 5 (AP)—A masonic citation describes Thomas J. Watson, chairman of the International Business Machine Corp.

as "one of the outstanding business leaders of the world, a loyal patriot, a patron of the arts and sciences." The citation was read last night at Watson, a Mason since 1901, received the Medal for Distinguished Achievement of the Grand Lodge of Masons of New York State.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

Learn Joe's Moves And Win Games

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

At some time during your bridge education you learn to locate the missing cards. This is a big forward step, to be sure, but it is important to watch not only what the opponents actually do but also what they fail to do. This point is illustrated in a hand played by Mrs. Dorothy McCorquodale of Wilmington in the recent Eastern Regional Tournament.

West opened the deuce of spades, and Mrs. McCorquodale finessed dummy's nine on the theory that West was very unlikely to be leading from the ace of spades. East won with the jack of spades and went into a huddle with himself, obviously looking for a safe return.

When East eventually returned a trump, Mrs. McCorquodale drew two rounds of trumps and then finessed the ten of clubs to East's queen. The idea was not only to Slouch for Health?

Richmond, Va. (AP)—If the Army listens to Dr. Alvan L. Barach there'll be no more of this "throw out your chest" posture. The same goes for the movie queens in Hollywood. "You're a lot better off if you walk around in a slouch like a gorilla," said Dr. Barach who is professor of clinical medicine at Columbia University's College of Physicians and Surgeons in a lecture here. "Never stand erect," he added, "it's not healthy. Your lungs stay filled up. The position the Army teaches is vicious. We should all learn to breathe with our diaphragms—like singers do."

PITCHING HORSESHOES

SCRABBLE COMES TO RIVINGTON STREET

Yesterday afternoon my private phone rang. It was my Uncle Charlie.

"In case you can come to supper," he said, "come."

"What's the trouble now?" I said.

"Your Aunt Frieda is talking incessant," said Charlie. "On all sides of the mouth and simultaneous. But what she is talking, I am not understanding."

"When I got to their flat on Rivington street, Frieda met me at the door. 'Is supper in five minutes,' she said. 'Go have the hands in the bathroom.'"

"If he laves the hands in the bathroom," said Charlie, "with what will he eat? His elbows?"

"Lave, not leave," said Frieda. "A ten point word meaning to put a little soap on the hands."

I looked at Charlie. He nodded sadly. "Now you know," he said. "Your aunt is every afternoon playing Scrabble with the ladies."

"Scrabble," said Frieda firmly. "Like they eat in Philadelphia."

"Scrabble, Scrabble," said Charlie. "Anyway, Frieda is learning words you shouldn't tell to a dog."

My aunt pointed proudly to a massive dictionary on the sideboard. It is the latest unabridged," she said.

That evening as per usual, Frieda's sauerbraten and candied red cabbage were the best cooking this side of the Tour d'Argent. The angry Charlie, however, made the mistake of criticizing the applesauce which was served with the potato pancakes.

"Hold the mouth," said my aunt. "In the matter of cuisine, you are a tyro."

"How can I be a tyro when everybody knows I'm a Litvak?" said Charlie. "Tyro is a place in Switzerland where they yodel."

"Your uncle is uncouth," said Frieda. "He is as much uncouth as Schlaegel, the butcher, who this morning is trying to slip over on me a rooster when I am ordering a parrot."

"A what?" I said.

"You get paid to write, you should know English," said my aunt. "A parrot is a tender young hen. When Schlaegel is handing me the rooster, I am refusing and telling him he is a picaroon person."

"Didn't you mean picayune?" I said.

"Picaroon," said Frieda loftily, "means mean and small."

"Better look it up in the dictionary," I said. "As I remember it, picaroon means something else."

"Anyway," said Frieda, "the customers is hearing the whole thing and laughing, and Schlaegel is hitting the chopping block with

Highland, May 3—Members of the Washington Club in the Central School who made the trip last week to the nation's capital were David Baker, Peter Burdick, E. Burfeindt, James Canino, Salvatore Crimi, Bait Coutant, Kenneth Cummings, Jean DeGroodt, Mary Dispensa, Mary Everidge, Ann Friedman, Theresa Gallo, Isham Harris, Robert Hecht, Mary Jeannette, Eileen Leahey, Edward Matthews, Fred Maynard, Robert Meekins, James Mertens, Marilyn Mertens, Maggie Mertens, Karl Murphy, Joan Needham, Peg Phillips, John Rechen, James Relyea, Clyde Roan, Mary Ann Sandy, Henry Sommelhack, Barbara Schrieber, Marie Sparacio and Carol Vail. The group was chartered by John C. Miller and Margaret Jones. Their first night stop was in Baltimore and on that day they visited the Fairless Steel Plant, Independence Hall, Betsy Ross House, campus of University of Pennsylvania and Valley Forge. In Annapolis they saw the U. S. Naval Academy, Cathedral, tomb of John Paul Jones, navy wharves and naval museum. Arriving in Washington, the Library of Congress, Supreme Court building, FBI headquarters and to Hotel Willard. Friday, the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, Smithsonian Institute and National Museum, the White House, Pan-American building, Archives Building, National Art Gallery, U. S. Capitol Botanical Gardens and Washington Monument. The embassy tour started Saturday's trek, followed by the Zoological Gardens, Franciscan Monastery, Ford Theatre and Jefferson Memorial. On Sunday a stop at Lee Mansion and Arlington Cemetery, church, visit to Christ Church in Alexandria, Mt. Vernon, National Airport and Lincoln Memorial. Monday morning the trip home was begun with a stop at Barbara Feltheim Home in Frederick, Md., lunch in Gettysburg and a tour of the battlefield, the state capitol in Harrisburg, Hershey Chocolate Plant in Hershey, Pa., and arrival that evening in Highland.

Matron Lorraine Turner and Patron John C. Blakely presided for the meeting of Highland Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Tuesday night in the Masonic Temple. Plans were completed for the district meeting Tuesday, May 11, when Mrs. Desse Hague, district deputy, and Ernest Schimer, district grand lecturer, will be honored. Rehearsal of officers and those taking part in the drill will be 8 p. m. Monday in the temple. It was voted to cooperate with Adonai Lodge for the musical Wednesday, May 5, in the temple for the public. Tickets may be secured from members of both organizations. The matron read a poem, Except for Mother, in honor of Mother's Day. An invitation was received from Emanuel Chapter, Saugerties, to the homecoming dinner and reception to the district grand lecturer Tuesday, May 26. Dinner will be in the VFW Hall, Livingston street, at 6:30 o'clock. A short business meeting will be held by Highland Chapter at 7:30 p. m. in order that members may attend the reception. The 50th birthday of the local chapter will be observed at the meeting June 8, Charter Member Night. Members were reminded to prepare handmade articles for the fair which will be held in conjunction with the annual barbecue of Adonai Lodge Saturday, June 26.

Sympathy was expressed to the family of the late Martin G. Schantz, a former assistant grand lecturer of the Greene-Ulster District, OES. The son of Mrs. Marjorie Glenn suffered a broken arm in a fall and the daughter of Mrs. Maeda Kingston is ill. Ellsworth Wheeler, father of Mrs. Jennie DuBois was reported improved. The granddaughter of Mrs. Harriet Alexander and niece of Mr. and Mrs. John Blakely was reported critically ill in the Homer Hospital. The husband of Mrs. Florence Decker reported home from Kingston Hospital.

Members will attend a district meeting at Kingston Chapter Friday, May 7. The matron requests coin cards for the Grand Matron's project be turned in by May 11 and the patron issued a like request for the Grand Patron's project. Substitute officers were Mrs. Charlotte Salomon, Mrs. Cecile Petersen, Frances Minard and Mrs. Minnie Schmalkuche. Why We Say--

When we use this expression, we don't usually think that we are being Roman, but actually the tag referred to here is the long Roman toga, which was an outer garment covering all of the clothes. When a Roman wished to impress someone by being "dressed up", he would put on his best toga (or, as we say it, logs).

It's Her Task

Richmond, Va. (AP)—Columbus Walker Cook agreed that his wife should name their new twins since "you're going to be calling them the most and besides I won't be around here to raise them." Cook is 80. The twins make 17 children for him and his 42-year-old wife. And Cook had 11 others by two previous wives.

Private Lie Detector

Saginaw, Mich. (AP)—Patrolman Patrick McPhillips, walking his downtown beat about midnight, passed a parking lot where he saw a boy in a car. Said the boy:

"I'm waiting for my uncle. He told me to wait in the car." McPhillips had another look. The car had been ransacked and he found three new fishing plugs in the 15-year-old's pocket. Besides, the car was McPhillips'.

Flatbush Rejects Consolidation Plan

Taxpayers of School District No. 6, south Flatbush, by a 25-0 vote, last night rejected a proposed consolidation of the school district in the greater Kingston area with the towns of Hurley, Rosendale, Kingston and Ulster.

Rejection of the proposal was in line with a recommendation made by a steering committee of six trustees appointed by the First Supervisory District, C. A. Johnson, superintendent, to explore the consolidation plan after it was announced on Nov. 19, 1953.

Budget Is $19,014.60

The vote on consolidation was the highlight of the annual school taxpayers meeting. Similar votes were taken in other districts affected by the proposed consolidation.

The taxpayers also adopted a budget of $19,014.60 for the 1954-55 fiscal year and authorized payment of bus transportation for pupils within the district and for pupils attending Kingston High.

Mrs. Bertha Parker was re-elected to a three-year term as trustee. Also re-elected were Mrs. Ralph Nardi, treasurer-collector; and Mrs. Mary Fisher, secretary. Other members of the board of trustees are Joseph M. Brown, chairman; and Gifford Beal.

Mrs. Howard A. Lewis was temporary chairman of the meeting. Harold Acker and Robert Post served as tellers.

Train Wrecks Car, Driver, 77, Escapes

A 1947 sedan, abandoned by the driver, when it became lodged on the upper Glencliff railroad crossing, Tuesday afternoon, was dragged 125 feet and completely wrecked by a New York Central freight train, according to state police of the Kingston station.

Troopers said William John Whiston, 77, of 121 Linderman avenue, caught a wheel of his car in the tracks when he ran off the paved portion of the crossing in the rear of the Belvedere Restaurant at 4 p. m.

The troopers further reported that Whiston got out of the auto, before the northbound train collision, and escaped injury.

DIED

SCHIED—Entered into rest suddenly, Wednesday, May 5, 1954, Charles P. Schied, of 162 Wrentham street, husband of Helen Glaser Schied; father of Mrs. Earl Casey, Peter E. Schied, U. S. Army; brother of Peter and Frederick Schied.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral from the Jensen & Deegan Funeral Home, 15 Downs street, on Saturday at 9 a. m., and from St. Joseph's Church at 9:30 where a high Mass of requiem will be offered for the repose of his soul. Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday and Friday at any time.

DIED

In loving memory of our dear father and grandfather, Joseph Rougier, who passed away five years ago today, May 5, 1949.

Peacefully sleeping, resting at last.

In silence he suffered, impatience he bore
Till God called him home to suffer no more.

Memorial

The Port Ewen Reformed Church will sponsor a rummage sale at the church house May 18 and 19, and at 15 Hasbrouck avenue, Kingston, May 21 and 22. All members and friends of the congregation are requested to contribute. Those wishing articles called for may contact Mrs. Donald Boyce or Mrs. Charles Montano.

The Port Ewen School Association will sponsor a card party at the Town of Esopus Auditorium Thursday, May 13, at 8 p. m. The public is invited. Refreshments will be served.

There was a large attendance at the Port Ewen Reformed Church May 1. Representatives from all the Reformed Churches of the Diocese of Ulster were in attendance. Preceding the meeting, dinner was served in the church hall by the Dorcas Society of the host church which was followed by an evangelistic service in the church. The Rev. Harvey I. Todd, pastor of the Woodstock Reformed Church, presided and introduced the guest speaker, the Rev. Jacob Prins, evangelist of the Reformed Church of America. The Rev. Mr. Prins has been conducting services in the Reformed Churches in Ulster county for the past week. The object of the service is to double church membership and attendance.

$46,053 School Budget Adopted in Port Ewen

Port Ewen, May 5.—Port Ewen School District 13 adopted a $46,053 budget during the annual meeting Tuesday evening, which time Burton W. Heldon was elected trustee, according to Principal Robert Graves.

In a District 12 meeting Tuesday night, covering the New Salem area, it was decided to continue sending school pupils from kindergarten age to the sixth year to the Port Ewen school while seventh graders and older will be sent to the Myron J. Michael School and Kingston High School.

No other major business was transacted, Principal Graves said.

Says Dog Was Frothing

William Short, of 50 Hunter street, reported at police headquarters early today that he had let his dog out and when he returned he acted strangely and was frothing from the mouth. He ran at Short and his wife, he said. Officers Edward Edwards and Floyd Krom were dispatched to the house and reported "disposing of the dog."

Windshield Is Damaged

Doris Ann Chapman, of Hurley, reported at 5:25 p. m. yesterday that a pellet, believed from a 22 rifle, struck and shattered the windshield of her car as she was driving west on Hurley avenue near the thruway overpass. Officers Meyer Levy and William Snyder investigated and reported that the bullet apparently had been spent when it struck.

Forfeits His Bail

Mario Liguri, 20, of 26 Grand street, was arrested last night by Officers Edward Edwards and Floyd Krom on a charge of speeding. He forfeited $15 bail through failure to appear before City Judge Raymond J. Mino today.

Commuters Assn. said the Long Island had been "stripped" of revenue-producing freight cars by the Pennsylvania Railroad, the parent company, and asked whether that had any bearing on the Long Island's petition to increase passenger fares.

Five-State Primaries Show . . .

For the remaining two years of Taft's term, Burke, a Democrat, was appointed to succeed Taft until the November election.

Bender defeated Ohio House Speaker William Saxbe. Burke was unopposed in the Democratic primary.

Acting Gov. Charley E. Johns and State Sen. Leroy Collins, in a three-week runoff campaign for Florida's Democratic nomination for governor, set out today to capture the 177,000 votes that went to defeated candidate Brailley Odham in Tuesday's first primary.

Unofficial returns from 1,637 of the state's 1,724 precincts gave Collins 208,460, Johns 231,142. Odham 177,095.

Collins and Johns will be faced with a problem of getting the voters out for the second primary May 25 for selection of a Democrat for the two remaining years of the late Gov. Dan McCarthy's term.

The Florida voting apparently gave J. Tom Watson an easy win over Charles E. Campton, Miami television repairman, in the contest for the Republican gubernatorial nomination. Watson is a former Democratic state attorney general.

President Says

President said, "are now thinking in constructive terms, which include the indispensable concept of collective security. Progress in this matter has been considerable and I am convinced that further progress will be continued to be made."

Asked whether he thought the Geneva Conference on Asian peace problems had been a major diplomatic defeat for American policy, Eisenhower replied crisply that no one can count a battle lost while it is still going on.

Other Issues

The President's conference covered a wide range of other topics, among them:

TAFT-HARTLEY LAW amendments: The President said he did not have a chance to study an amendment proposed by Sen. Goldwater (R-Ariz.) designed to give the states greater control over labor-management relations. Eisenhower added that the matter of the rights of the states to act in such cases has been the subject of many discussions. So long as the rights assured in the Taft-Hartley Law are not violated, he said, the rights of preservation of health and keeping the peace should not be interfered with.

The President commented further that he would not like to see the administration's recommendations for changes in the law blocked by what he called extraneous issues but he repeated that he was not prepared to discuss the Goldwater proposal.

Democratic conference: Eisenhower said with a smile he hasn't been invited to the Democratic Party conference opening here today with former President Truman and other top party officials in attendance. His remark was in reply to a question as to whether he had any message for the Democrats.

Never Heard Reports

FARM PROGRAM: The President said he had never heard of reports—described to him by a newsman—that he was willing to accept a one-year extension of the present law providing for government price support of basic farm commodities at 90 per cent of parity. The law is scheduled to expire at the end of the year, and the President has recommended a switch to a flexible price support program in place of the rigid 90 per cent.

Eisenhower again refused to speculate as to whether he might approve or veto a bill calling for continuance of the present program.

BUSINESS CONDITIONS: At present, Eisenhower declared, there is a preponderance of favorable signs for business, as compared with the unfavorable indications in the picture. This was in comment on whether it will be necessary for the government to continue to exercise some influence over the economy. The President replied the government was free of exercising such influence.

Eisenhower recalled that previously he has cautioned against being too pessimistic about the business outlook. He said that today he also wanted to caution against looking at the picture through too rosy glasses.

FOREIGN TRADE: Eisenhower said he hoped Congress will approve the essential features of his foreign trade policy which calls for a 3-year extension of the Reciprocal Trade Act with a gradual 15 per cent cut in tariffs on selected items.

COURTS-MARTIAL POLICY: The cardinal principle in the handling of courts-martial, the President said, will be based on justice tempered with mercy in all cases.

He added that no one should make the error of regarding all such cases as similar.

The comments came when a reporter said the various branches of the armed forces seemed to have different policies on court-martial cases.

Court of Honor Is Held for District

Saugerties, May 3—A Saugerties District Court of Honor was held at the municipal auditorium on Wednesday evening before a gathering estimated over 100 which included Boy Scouts, parents, Scouters, dignitaries and friends of scouting.

District Commissioner William Plimley in charge of the program welcomed the gathering in a brief address which again emphasized the importance of parental participation in Scouting.

Raymond S. Quackenbush, president of the Rip Van Winkle Council, was then called upon to present the three top awards to Charles Brackett, Richard Brackett and James Mergendahl who received Life Scout Badges. Quackenbush congratulated the award winners, all members of Troop 32 sponsored by the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Atonement. He observed that they had achieved the second highest rank in Scouting and urged them to work toward Eagle Rank.

The Star Rank was awarded to Eugene Lang of Explorer Post 130 and Marzell Roming of Troop 32 for earning five merit badges. The Star Rank awards were presented by Frank Teel, field scout executive of the council.

Those achieving Tenderfoot rank from Troop 33 included Alvin Notarnicola, James Notarnicola, Harry Dean, Clifford Lewis and Henry Smith.

Following the presentation of awards Scout Marzell Roming previewed the slides taken at the National Boy Scout Jamboree in Santa Ana, Calif., last summer. A camp promotion film on Camp Tri-Mount was shown by Teel.

with special comments on increasing the number of local boys who will attend camp this summer.

A candlelighting ceremony conducted by Richard Brackett with members of Troop 32 was the traditional opening feature of the court of honor. The court of honor closed with the sounding of taps by Bruce Freiligh.

St. Paul's Church Elects Councilmen
Saugerties, May 3—During the annual congregational meeting of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church Thursday night at the West Camp Parish Hall four councilmen were reelected to office and a new member was elected to fill a vacancy. The vacancy was left by Dr. Ludwig Neimann who declined the nomination for reelection due to pressure of his profession and inability to attend council meetings regularly.

Vernon Asher of Evesport was elected to fill the vacancy. The councilmen reelected were Henry Knaust, William Lasher, Harry L. Moose and Oscar L. Schlenker.

Following the elections reports were heard from all church organizations.

The highlight of the evening was the pastor's report given by the Rev. Henry M. Schumann who spoke of the distinction of the West Camp Church in affording facilities for different language services being conducted at St. Paul's. Also reported was the progress being made by the Sunday school and the Young Couples Club, both of which purchased new equipment which will be available for church work.

Following the reports the Rev. Mr. Schumann at the special request of the Church Council presented a talk on the work he had participated in under the Lutheran World Federation. He spoke of conditions in Europe which are not usually observed by a casual vacationist. The Rev. Mr. Schumann also related his experience behind the Iron Curtain in East Berlin and the dangers of becoming involved in incidents.

After the address a motion picture relating to the subject was shown by Asher, entitled, Let Us Live.

That Epistifies It
Popular Bluff, Mo. (P)—The Popular Bluff Daily American Republic has been carrying a series of articles on snoring, principally by husbands. And the women folk have recommended treatment varying from outright shooting of the snorer to separate bedrooms. But the other day a correspondent said the thing to do was to find the cause and she cited the scientific analysis she credited to her father: "The psychological periphery of the perimeter requires that the larynx, the glottis and the epiglottis shall have all the complete attention of the atmosphere. That causes the nasal protuberances to prevaricate. In that way the whizzlemaginary of the candlebrium has to explode through the hydrostatics of the proboscis, thus producing a snore, a snort or a gurgle."

Ever See around a Corner?

THE stunning new windshield you find in every 1954 Buick does a lot more than merely keynote the most modern beauty of the times.

Just take the driver's seat in any one of these tomorrow-styled cars and you'll feel positively eagle-eyed.

That spectacular sweep of glass broadens your point of view to the right and to the left.

It puts more safety in your seeing. It lets you see more of what's coming from the sides—and quicker and easier, too—because the corner posts are pulled 'way back.

This, you realize, is true panoramic visibility—and makes anything else seem as outdated as long skirts.

But you ought to look into what else goes with the dream-car styling of these great new Buicks.

You ought to look into the whip-like performance of true high-compression V8 engines that reach new horsepower highs.

You ought to look into the silky new ride, the sweet new handling ease, the utter smoothness and instant response of Twin-Turbine Dynaflo.

Most of all, you ought to look into the sensational new Buick CENTURY that's taking the country by storm—the great new Buick performer that gives you more horsepower per dollar than any other car in America.

We cordially invite you to come in today or the first thing tomorrow—to see and drive one of these great new Buicks—and judge for yourself that here is the beauty and the buy of the year, by far.

NEW PALTZ NEWS

New Paltz Central School Board Meets

New Paltz, May 3—The regular meeting of the New Paltz Central School Board was held Thursday night at the high school. All members attended and approximately 20 interested citizens.

A group of people from the Guilford section appeared in connection with bus transportation for their children. Much discussion followed with Transportation Chairman Fred DuBois explaining the results of their study. A satisfactory agreement was reached, to take effect in the fall.

A report on the multiple residence law was given by Building Inspector Raymond Morris. Several alterations are indicated to comply with this law and the board agreed to act on it. It was turned over to Raymond Hasbrouck of the grounds committee. Members of the board are to hold meetings in the state capitol early in May to reach an agreement on the proposed building issue. Until such plans are made definite, there will be no further information on this subject.

Floor plans for the health rooms were submitted by Dr. Robert Reid and filed for future use.

Mrs. Robert Swain read the plan of the publicity committee which met with the approval of the board. All boxholders will receive brochures telling of present facilities and those needed. Posters will be passed out at meetings and newspapers will also publicize the plan.

Frank Bugar reminded those present that the Hudson Valley Relays will once more be held at New Paltz, this year on May 8. The meeting was adjourned and the board retired to its usual executive meeting.

Schools Participate In Vaccine Program

New Paltz, May 3—Dr. Robert Reid reports that administering of polio vaccine got underway this week in the New Paltz area. Dr. Reid was assisted by Beth Kurtzman, Mrs. Roland Babb, Mrs. Pauline Klix, Mrs. Margaret Van Valkenburgh and Mrs. Mabel LaFale, nurses.

A total of 38 received shots in the parochial school while 30 children of Gardiner, Ardonia and Modena received them in the Modena School.

Of the Campus School 101 children were included, 11 of the village community school, and eight of Plutarch, all taken care of in the Campus School.

To Address Bureau

New Paltz, May 3—The regular monthly meeting of the New Paltz Home Bureau will be held Thursday, May 6, at 11 a. m. at the home of Mrs. Charles Huntington. Mrs. Carleton Vandewater will give a garden talk which will be followed in the afternoon by a short business meeting. Plans for District Achievement Day will be completed.

Village Board Meets;

Reports Are Heard

New Paltz, May 3—The regular meeting of the village board was held recently in the trustees' room of the municipal building presided over by Mayor Dr. Robert Reid. Present were trustees Robert Jansen, Henry DuBois, Kelly Campbell, Marjorie Petersen, Frank Slack, treasurer and Wilbur Fredenburgh, clerk.

Jansen of the street committee reported that 500 feet of storm sewer was installed on Tricor street, and 1,100 feet on Elting avenue. He also reported there were five catch basins installed on Elting avenue and one on Tricor street.

Petersen of the water committee reported that a test will be made to see how long the water in the reservoir will last. It also was brought out at this time that automatic controls are to be installed on the water pumps.

Petersen also informed the board that the Garden Club is ready to plant the trees and landscape the proposed corner as soon as the grading is completed. It is planned to have the bank graded to street level when the bulldozer is brought in for other work.

In the correspondence, Fredenburgh read a letter from the village firemen, submitting the officers as they were elected at their last meeting for approval of the board. A motion was passed to accept the officers as submitted.

Accepted and signed were bonds on the village treasurer and the village clerk for $60,000 and $1,200, respectively.

The board voted to transfer $2,000 of the parking meter fund to the general fund. Total collection from the parking meters thus far is $3,216.69.

The fire department turned in a detailed report which said that in 1953 there was a total of 13 calls in the village, which included three false alarms. Men answering the calls in the village averaged 29. There were 19 calls made in the town, outside the village including calls made to the Rod and Gun Club, the Vourakis house, the Toledano house on the Kingston road, which all were a total loss. Also the call to the Scalabrini house where considerable damage was done. An average of 34 men responded to the town calls.

It was decided to make the week of May 3 through May 7 Clean-up week. During that time all refuse left at the curb will be picked up by village trucks.

Jansen informed the board that a family wishes to tap water from the New Paltz water main which passes the property they intend to build on in the Real Estate Development at Butterville. An application will have to be made by the party desiring same.

Slack reported that taxes outstanding amount to $10.20. Water receipts for April amount to $208.93.

It was agreed to hold a special meeting Monday, May 17.

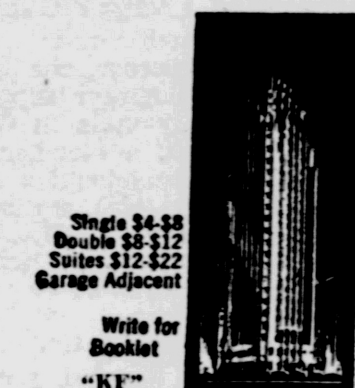

The water meters are to be read the week of May 17, and it is hoped that an early conclusion of the job can be reached so that work can be started on the streets that are to be oiled, without conflict of the two jobs.

Cars and Trucks

The United States has 45 million passenger cars and 9,147,000 trucks in use today compared to 15 1/2 million and 2,125,000 respectively in 1924.

Civil Service Exam

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced a new examination for warehouse examiner for filling positions paying from $3,410 to $5,060 a year in the Production and Marketing Administration of the Department of Agriculture. Optional fields of the examination include grain, cotton, miscellaneous products—dry storage, and miscellaneous products—cold storage. The jobs are located throughout the United States and require continuous travel. Further information and application forms may be obtained from the Commission's Examiner in Charge, William P. Barry, main post office, Kingston.

Cancer Research Is Topic for Lions By Doctor Maroon

A verbal look behind the scenes of cancer research was given Lions Club members by Dr. Ha-beeb Maroon in a talk Tuesday noon at the Governor Clinton Hotel.

Research is a long, continuing effort, Dr. Maroon pointed out, with the public only hearing about its final results.

Cancer was likened by Dr. Maroon to a "vicious, fast spreading weed" threatening a lawn. The two most used methods of ridding the body of cancer are surgery, or cutting the weed out, and X-ray, or burning it out.

Diagnosis Important

Dr. Maroon pointed out the limitations of each method and the advances being made in each through research. With early diagnosis so important to the success of treatment, he also noted that a search is underway to find an "absolute criteria by which cancer cells may be differentiated from normal cells."

Other methods now being explored, Dr. Maroon said, include some method of "altering the soil" so that the good grass may thrive and the weed die out; poisoning the weed, and exploding the cancer weed.

Various Problems

Problems encountered in attempts to find a way of poisoning cancer by injecting a chemical are found in the fact that most chemicals known today have an effect also on the normal cells, or have a toxic effect on the blood cells.

The exploding possibility has gained since the introduction of radio-active materials and today is sometimes used in treating cancer of the thyroid gland, he said.

With research continuing along the lines mentioned, Dr. Maroon predicted that within the "next decade or so" there would be great advances made resulting, if not in a cure, at least in adding months of pleasant, useful living for the cancer patient.

Bystanders Check Theft

New York, May 5 (AP)—A man who allegedly used a Mother's Day card for a holdup note in a Grand Central candy shop was floored yesterday by a couple of bystanders as he ran into the terminal. Identified as Calvin Biessecker, 25, of East Orange, N. J., he was later booked on charges of assault and robbery.

Reports on Dimes Drive, Vaccine Are Given for Esopus

Interest by the Town of Esopus in the March of Dimes drive and presently in the vaccine clinics indicates that it is one of the areas cooperating extensively in the fight against infantile paralysis.

According to a complete report for the town in the drive for funds, $1,281.81 was collected by various workers under the direction of Mrs. Donald Swan, assisted by Mrs. William Anderson and Mrs. Robert Graves.

Mrs. Graves is serving as chairman of the town vaccine clinics, aided by Mrs. Swan. The first was held in the town hall at Port Ewen April 28, the second was scheduled for today and the third on June 2 from 10 a. m. to noon. The clinics are staffed by Dr. L. E. Sanford of Port Ewen, Mrs. Mary O'Neill and Miss Edith Cain.

Volunteer workers are Mrs. Oakley Maynard, Mrs. Martin Nilan, Mrs. Kenneth Bonville, Mrs. Frank Dailey, Mrs. Kenneth Douglas and Mrs. Graves.

$1,281.81 Raised
Reports completed by village chairmen for the March of Dimes show a total of $1,281.81, according to a press release by Mrs. Swan, the town chairman.

Village chairmen have reported money collected as follows:
St. Remy, Mrs. Tracy Van Vliet, $93.37; New Salem-May Park, Mrs. William Irwin, $44.82; West Park, Mrs. William Van Benschoten, $67.43; Esopus, Mrs. Edward Britus, $95.42; Rifton, Mrs. M. Brix, $75; Ulster Park-Union Center, Mrs. Jason Sahler, $90.69; Connelly, Mrs. Thomas Morrissey, $75.75; Port Ewen, Mrs. William Anderson and Mrs. Donald Swan, $238.96; Hildebrand Dry Dock Co., $375; Hercules Powder Co., $106.50 and Callanan Road Improvement Co., $75.

Say Millions Are Goats

Buffalo, May 5 (AP)—A Wisconsin weekly newspaper publisher who is leading a campaign to start recall proceedings against Sen. McCarthy says "the biggest goats" in the McCarthy-Stevens hearings are "the 160 million citizens who have to watch them." Leroy Gore, publisher of the Sauk City Prairie Star, spoke yesterday before the Greater Buffalo Advertising Club. He declined to estimate whether the hearings would end in time for Sen. Mundt (R-S.D.), the chairman, to speak here in June.

Rhee to Attempt Unity

San Francisco, May 5 (AP)—A veteran legal adviser to the Republic of Korea says that if the Geneva Conference fails President Syngman Rhee will attempt "to unify the country even in the face of the threat of a new, and possibly world-wide war. John W. Stagers of Washington, D. C., told newsmen yesterday the opinion is entirely his own. But he said he had formed it after consulting with Rhee practically every day while he was in Korea.

19 Miners Killed

Grosseto, Italy, May 5 (AP)—Mine officials counted at least 19 known dead today from an underground gas blast at the Ribolla lignite mine near here. Hope faded for another 20 to 24 miners trapped by crumbled tunnels more than 1,000 feet below the surface. The explosion yesterday caved in 100 feet of the mine's main gallery. In addition to the dead, a dozen or so miners received injuries, but these were reported not serious.

Dredging Is Resumed

Harrison, N. J., May 5 (AP)—Dredging operations resumed today in the Passaic river here in an effort to find Benedetto Macri, who has been missing more than a week. Stains in the luggage compartment of a car used by Macri were found to be those of human blood. The car was found here last week. Macri's brother, Vincent, was slain and his body found crammed in the trunk of a car parked in the Bronx, N. Y., April 25. Benedetto hasn't been seen since that date. In New York, Asst. Dist. Atty. Lawrence Pelton said the evidence indicates that Benedetto met the same fate as his brother.

Family Life Speaker At Baptist Church Program This Evening

DR. EUGENE P. LINK

Dr. Eugene P. Link, chairman of the social science division at the New Paltz State Teachers College, and who also is regarded as a well-known student in his primary field of interest, marriage and family relations, will be the guest speaker at a Family Life covered dish supper program tonight at the First Baptist Church.

All church members are invited to the supper which begins at 6:30 p. m. and the Rev. Donald E. Brown, church pastor, has issued a cordial invitation to the public to attend the meeting and Dr. Link's talk which follows the supper program.

Program for Children

Dr. Link's appearance tonight at the Baptist Church is in observance of National Family Week. Parents are invited to bring their children as a special program of movies and games will be held for them while Dr. Link addresses the parents and other adults.

Dr. Link, a former president of the Rocky Mountain Council on family relations, also is a member of the Board of Directors of the National Council on Family Relations. He is secretary of the latter group. The New Paltz professor also is author of the Democratic-Republican Societies, and has written various papers on the social history of American Medicine.

The New Paltz College professor is no stranger to local audiences. He and his wife, who is a psychologist, have spoken many times in Kingston before P-T-A meetings, conferences of teachers and before the interdenominational leadership training schools. They also have addressed the Evening Discussion Group at Kingston High School.

Conduct European Tours

Dr. and Mrs. Link have jointly conducted family life workshops and are presenting an annual family life leadership training institute in New Paltz each June. Together they lead and direct the annual marriage and family life study tour to Europe investigating family services in six western countries. This summer they plan to tour the Near East.

Tonight's program is under the sponsorship of the church school of the First Baptist Church while arrangements for the supper are being handled by members of the Sunshine Class.

Cancer Work Postponed

Officers and Guest Speaker at Junior DAR Meeting

Principals at a meeting of Junior Committee, Wiltwyck Chapter DAR, held Monday evening at the Chapter House, were, seated, left to right, Mrs. John Schleede, chairman; Mrs. Ivan T. Johnson, state consulting registrar; Mrs. William Ochs, regent; and Mrs. Clair Sheaffer, advisor to Junior Committee. Standing in the same order are Mrs. J. James Scotching, Junior State vice chairman; Mrs. Albert Roesa, vice chairman; Mrs. William Lawrence, secretary, and Miss Carolyn Newkirk, treasurer.

Guest Speaker Notes Threelfold Purpose To Jr. DAR Members

Mrs. Ivan T. Johnson, state consulting registrar, noted the threelfold purpose of the DAR to the members of the Junior Committee, Wiltwyck Chapter DAR at the Chapter House Monday evening.

Mrs. Johnson said that the DAR must preserve the history of the past, share the duties of the present, and help make a better world for the future. Prior to the meeting, Mrs. Johnson was guest of honor at a dinner held at Judies.

Mrs. Walter McClure, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the slate of officers for the coming year, all of whom were unanimously elected. They are as follows: Mrs. John M. Schleede, chairman; Mrs. Virginia Curtis, vice-chairman; Mrs. William Lawrence, secretary; and Miss Carolyn Newkirk, treasurer. Mrs. Clair Sheaffer will again serve as advisor to the group.

Mrs. Adam S. Porter reported on the Continental Congress which she attended the week of April 19 in Washington, D. C. President Eisenhower and J. Edgar Hoover were among the important speakers at this conference.

Mrs. William Ochs, regent, reminded the members of the Memorial Day Sunday Service at the Old Dutch Church. As has been the custom for many years, flags will be placed on the graves of the Revolutionary soldiers by this group prior to the service. At the conclusion of the meeting, Miss Jane Sheaffer sang, Bless This House, Desert Song, Happy Song and You'll Never Walk Alone. Mrs. Hollis Burhans and Mrs. J. Douglas Rattray were hostesses during the social hour which followed the meeting.

The Story of a Diamond

Before we exhibit a diamond in our showcase, we first place it in the Diamond-scope (A), where with the help of this light-penetrating microscope, we judge it for clarity and cutting. Next, the Diamond-lite (B) measures it against master stones to determine color. After weighing for carat weight on our diamond scales (C), we can then price it accurately. This system of diamond grading is used exclusively by us and our fellow Registered Jewelers, American Gem Society. Convenient Budget Terms Available.

The best man was N. Tosti, father of the bridegroom. Ushers were Joseph Arias and George Millham.

Following a reception at Bou-boules Swiss Inn at Burnside for 65 guests, the couple left on a wedding trip. For traveling, the bride chose a tan suit with brown accessories and an orchid corsage.

On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Tosti will live in Kingston.

The bride elect is a graduate of Kingston High School, class of 1949, and is an alumna of Cortland State Teachers College, class of 1953, where she majored in physical education. She was a member of Theta Phi sorority and served as treasurer and house president, and is now a member of the faculty of Gilboa Central School.

Mr. La Bombard was graduated from Plattsburgh High School, class of 1948 and from Plattsburgh State Teachers College in 1953. In June, 1951, he interrupted his studies to enlist in the Navy where he served as a meteorologist and was discharged in September, 1952. At present, he is a faculty member at Gilboa Central School, teaching sixth grade and coaching the junior varsity basketball team.

MRS. RONALD TOSTI

The marriage of Miss Charity Arias, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Arias of New Paltz, and Ronald Tosti, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. Tosti, was performed Saturday, April 24, at St. Joseph's Church, New Paltz. The Rev. John H. Mahoney performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Edna Brannigan was organist with Miss Bernadette Lawler as soloist. The church was decorated with Easter lilies, white chrysanthemums and white satin ribbons.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown with a pointed waistline, Peter Pan collar, long pointed sleeves, and a yoke outlined with seed pearls and sequins. Her bouffant skirt terminated in a long train. A crown of pearls and sequins secured her fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of calla lilies with an orchid in the center.

The matron of honor was Mrs. A. Corwin of Middletown. She wore a gown of aquamarine and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Miss F. Marcello was flower girl, and wore a pink gown. She carried a basket of mixed flowers. Miss J. Ronk as junior bridesmaid, wore a lavender gown and carried

DISCOURTESY TO HELPFUL FRIEND

A reader asks: "Is it discourteous not to go home from a party with the same friend who stopped by and drove me to the party? She didn't say anything about my going home with her, and when another friend asked to drive me home, I said yes. (Both go my way.) The first friend is miffed."

Unless this friend had explained to you that she could not take you home, you certainly were very discourteous not to at least ask her if she minded if you went with someone else.

Flowers on Mother's Day
Dear Mrs. Post: I would be grateful to you if you would answer the following question for me. My mother is living, but I also have a stepmother whom I see quite often and who has always been very nice to me. I would like to know if on Mother's Day it would be proper to remember her in some way either by sending flowers or a greeting card. My husband thinks not and that it would be belittling to my own mother to do this. I wouldn't want to do this for the world, but might my stepmother feel slighted if I ignored her on this day?

Answer: I can't see that sending a few flowers would be belittling to your mother. Of course, if you send them to your stepmother and not to your own mother, that would be something else again!

Flowers for Sponsors
Dear Mrs. Post: As a member of the junior class of X High School, I am writing to you asking if you will tell me the proper procedure for giving our sponsors flowers for our junior-senior banquet. We have two women sponsors and one man. Is it correct to give the man a boutonniere without giving his wife a corsage, or to give the women corsages without giving their husbands each a boutonniere?

Answer: I do not think the husbands or the wife of the sponsors have to be included in your flower giving.

Is it good taste to use a printed card for acknowledging a personal kindness? Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. Her leaflet E-21, "Model Notes," answers the above and many other questions on acknowledgments. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, c/o The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Marbletown Central Entertains PTF

A group of girls and boys from Mr. Sweeney's Choral Club entertained the Marbletown PTF Club at their regular meeting April 28. Janice Sheeley announced the program. The first selection, I Like It Here by Clay Boland, was sung by the chorus with Albert Davis featured as soloist. The second number, An Indian Summer Day on the Prairie with words by Vachel Lindsay and music by Henry M. Halverson, created a real Indian-like chant as Albert Davis, Robert Larsen and William Roosa beat the drums while the chorus sang. The third song, Devotion, was a solo sung by Louise Redelberger. The closing number, America, the Beautiful with words by Katherine Lee Bates and music by Samuel A. Ward, was sung in two-part harmony by the entire chorus. Other children taking part in the chorus were

Spring Cleaning

During the Easter holiday the school underwent spring cleaning. All floors in the classrooms, corridors and gym were scrubbed and made shining for the reopening of the spring term. The fourth grade room is newly painted a pleasant chartreuse color and the fifth-grade room, also freshly painted, is a pink-beige. Both are in keeping with the cheerful color harmony of the other rooms. Three sandboxes have been filled for the young children and the kindergartens are especially delighted to have their own sand box in their own play area. The new power lawn mower has arrived and is in operation. The Emcee, our school newspaper, is now on sale and as it will be the last edition this year, don't miss it! The eighth grade magazine sale in progress this week has been reported to be very successful. Congratulations to the eighth grade for winning the PTF Attendance Banner this month! Three teachers, Mmes. Larsen, Muller and Herdman attended the Mental Health lecture in Kingston on April 28. There will be no school on Friday, May 7, due to a teacher's conference to be held at the Ontario Central School.

Child Development, Mental, Physical, Talk At P-TA Meeting

P-TA of School No. 7, will have its next meeting at the school, Crown and Green streets, Tuesday, May 11, beginning at 8 p. m. This will be the final meeting of the current school term and following the program, election of officers for next year will be held.

The program for the evening will be devoted to the theme, How Parents Can Help With the Emotional, Mental, Social and Physical Development of Their Child. Dr. Elbert F. MacFadden will speak on the physical phase.

Dr. MacFadden is a well-known local pediatrician and is on the staff of both the Kingston and Benedictine Hospitals. James Casucci, psychologist, will speak on the mental, emotional and social development of the child. Mr. Casucci, together with Dr. Cohen, Head Psychiatrist of the New York State Department of Mental Hygiene, and Mrs. Clarabelle Burton, psychiatric social worker, conduct a Child Guidance Clinic in Kingston twice a month. Mr. Casucci's function on this team is to give the child a psychometric test which determines their mental capacities, as a first step in guidance of the child.

Following the two speakers, a panel consisting of Dr. MacFadden, Mr. Casucci and Mrs. George Dingee, principal of the school, will answer questions from the floor. The public is invited.

Kingston Marine Appears in Italian Movie

Cpl. Rudolph Turk, USMC, left, shows the cork from the first bottle of champagne served at a dinner, in Naples, Italy, in honor of Vittorio De Sica, right, to Lionella Carroll, Italian actress who starred in Bicycle Thief. Turk, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Turk, 28 North street, is appearing in De Sica's newest venture, The Gold of Naples.

Four Sailors, Marine Act in Italian Movie, The Gold of Naples

A marine, Cpl. Rudolph Turk of 28 North street, and four sailors are movie actors now, courtesy the Public Information Service of the navy and Vittorio De Sica, famed Italian director-producer-actor.

De Sica requested uniforms from the navy PIO, but the organization went one better, and supplied the enlisted men, through the cooperation of their department heads. Their part in De Sica's newest film, The Gold of Naples, will show them as tourists in that city, providing background for several shots in the picture.

A photo in The Mediterranean News shows De Sica explaining their roles to the five enlisted men in the film composed of six separate chronicles showing the true patience and temperament of the people of Naples. De Sica is well known for his films, Shoeshine and Bicycle Thief.

The process of using persons with no previous acting experience is nothing new to De Sica. He has constantly taken up the challenge of developing unknowns, the News says.

Turk has been in the marine corps for two and a half years, re-enlisting for duty in Naples where he has been since October. Three of his brothers were servicemen: Thomas J., who served with the paratroopers; Michael, with the infantry; and Samuel, with the air force. Another brother, James Turk Jr., is now serving in the navy.

Turk had one week's leave from his marine corps duties to participate in the filming of the picture.

Daughter of Former Kingston Resident Married in Auburn

White carnations formed a setting in the Church of the Redeemer, Lutheran, Auburn, Saturday, April 3, for the wedding of Miss Joan Frances Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Kenneth Wilson of Hartford, Conn., and Donald H. Buddenhagen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Buddenhagen, formerly of 82 First avenue, this city, now of Auburn. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Howard H. Leber, and was followed by a reception at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

The bride wore a grey wool suit with navy accessories, a navy and white straw hat with veiling and a corsage of white orchids.

Miss Barbara Bucko, a classmate of the bride at Syracuse University, was maid of honor, and Miss Shirley Baer of Worcester, Mass., was the bridesmaid. Charles J. Karatsis of Worcester, classmate of the bridegroom at Syracuse University, served as best man, and the usher was Donald Moller, a roommate of the bridegroom.

The bride is a sophomore at Syracuse University. The bridegroom is also a student at Syracuse, and is a former sergeant in the Marine Corps, with four years service including active duty in Korea.

Auxiliary Plans
Program to Mark
Hospital Week

Plans for the approaching Hospital Week celebration were reported by Mrs. George Bushnell at the monthly meeting of Kingston Hospital Auxiliary held at the Nurses Home Tuesday evening. She outlined the program for the period May 9 to 15.

Mrs. George Riftenbury, in charge of the window display, announced that it will be held again in the show-window of the Union Fern store, Wall street, which has generously donated the space for this cause. The display will depict the various duties performed by volunteer services as well as those employed at the hospital and the student nurses.

Mrs. Parker Brinley, president, announced that Mrs. Fredric W. Holcomb, Sr., had been appointed chairman of the gift case which the auxiliary will sponsor and man at the hospital for the comfort and convenience of patients and visitors alike.

The gift case will be located near the volunteer desk off the main lobby and will carry essential and gift items. A small showcase will also be on display on the second floor.

The auxiliary unanimously voted at their meeting to sponsor scholarships for any needy applicants that are accepted in the Nursing School.

Plans were announced for the dinner to be held at Judies, May 20, in honor of the 25 years of service to the hospital of Miss Alameda Porter, Miss Leah D. Schauer and Mrs. Pearl Carver. The dinner will be held at 7:30 p. m. All auxiliary members are cordially invited to attend this dinner, and are asked to contact Mrs. Storms at the Hospital to make their reservations.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, Mrs. Herbert Derman, program chairman, introduced Dr. Dudley W. Hargraves, Ulster County Health Commissioner, who spoke on the polio vaccine now being given to the children of Ulster County. Dr. Hargraves gave a history of the discovery of the vaccine, and how the now famous Dr. Salk had produced this serum for polio.

In a question and answer period, Dr. Hargraves answered many pertinent questions about the vaccination of the children, and its effects, and gave the audience a better understanding of this new approach to polio.

Following the program, refreshments were served with Mrs. Arthur W. Hazenbush and Mrs. Peter D. Corsones as hostesses. A social hour followed.

and the leasing of local telephone company facilities.

The company would set up a 50-watt local control base station with special coaxial antennae connected by about 125 feet of air dielectric transmission line, would install 30 watt mobile units and a monitoring speaker with cutoff key. The monthly cost would be $158 plus a $5 installation cost.

It was noted that "additional mobile units up to license limitations may be provided at a monthly charge of $20 with an initial charge of $35 each, and a charge of $35 for transferring a mobile unit from one car to another."

Scholarships Established

A letter from Mayor Stang reported that the Art Students League, which leases a city-owned property at Woodstock, has established two scholarships for the summer of 1954 for a boy and a girl student at Kingston High School, who are designated as the "most worthy" to receive them.

The mayor said he had notified Clarence S. Rowland, president of the Board of Education of the offer.

A letter from Michael E. Gau, Jr., of 929 South 7th avenue, Wausau, Wis., who is Catholic Action chairman there, said: "I am very much pleased to see in the La-Crosse diocesan paper, 'The Register,' that you start your council meetings with a prayer. It seems good to read that some people put God in their business. We need more of this in the world."

Last night's meeting was opened by the Rev. Ivan F. Gossio, of Trinity Methodist Church, followed by the pledge to the flag led by Alderman-at-Large Joseph Kelly.

The aldermen voted to renew the lease between the city and the Delaware Valley & Kingston Railroad Co. for use of Block Park for another 10 years.

poration counsel the aldermen voted to settle a claim filed against the city by Miss Margaret L. Zalliff, of 121 Fair street, for injuries suffered because of a fall due to a hole in the street at St. James and Pine streets. The claim filed in April was for $121.97, and the settlement sum was $42.65. The letter noted that prior notice had been given of the street condition.

The corporation counsel explained in a letter that he saw no danger to the city as the result of erecting signs which might warn: "Caution—Children at Play," or "Drive Slowly—Children at Play," or some other similar wording. He had been asked for an opinion on this after Alderman Robert C. Cullum, at a recent meeting, had proposed such signs at Miller's Lane and Dunneham avenue.

On recommendation of the laws and rules committee the council authorized a business zone designation for the John L. Mackinon property at 2 Pearl street. Application for the change was unopposed at a recent public hearing.

To Limit Parking

The aldermen also voted to limit parking in front of the city hall for 10 minutes. The proposal as submitted, also suggested that the area in the rear of the building be "designated and reserved" for the cars of city officials and employees.

Alderman Smith in his statement in behalf of a playground in the eighth ward said that since taking office, "I have endeavored to the best of my ability to secure favorable consideration for the creation of a playground where our small children could play in safety."

Present traffic endangers the youngsters, he said, and "a playground is needed in the area of No. 2 School. He had approached property owners asking consideration of sale, lease or lending of land, and the attitude of some, he said, indicated "they would prefer to see weeds grown on their land rather than see our small children have a safe place to play."

The recreation department, he said, is "most cooperative, and would like to establish such a playground."

This is the United States, he noted, and property rights must be respected, but he felt it time he spoke "strongly on the subject. I have known and experienced the same anxieties as these mothers and fathers over the safety of their children." There must be a solution, he said, and he stressed his intentions to find it.

Repair of Park Asked

A letter from Chris Perry, supervisor of the third ward, asked for the repair of Park, Farrelly and Sylvester streets, and a resolution by Third Ward Alderman Edwin Radel asked for the same.

Perry's letter said that Park street had not been repaired satisfactorily in 30 years, and "up to this date, still is extremely bad." It was mentioned in January, he said that all wards of the city would benefit in the street program. Alderman Radel has sought results, he said, and the people of the ward would appreciate "immediate action."

The following resolutions were offered by aldermen and referred by Alderman-at-Large Joseph Kelly for action:

Bodenweber—that immediate action be given to Trenton street. It has deep, dangerous holes, is a dirt road, and residents would appreciate its repair by leveling and the use of gravel dust and oil. He asked for a catch basin at Trenton and Andrew streets, a stop-sign at Summer and Susan streets, because Susan street is now the only way to the freight depot.

Bodenweber—that one-hour parking be established on the south side of West O'Reilly street from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. Because there is no parking on the north side of West O'Reilly street, he said, all parking is on the other side. The majority of property on the south side does not have driveways and residents do not have a place to park; that one-hour parking be established on both sides of Hoffman street from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. Property owners would benefit, he suggested, if factory workers could use the auditorium lot; that the no-parking sign on the east side of Susan street be moved to the other side of Fuller's driveway.

Request Is Suggested

Alderman Bodenweber complained of lack of action on four recent proposals he submitted. He felt that aldermen should be informed as to any action or lack of it on resolutions. Alderman-at-Large Kelly suggested that in the future he submit with resolutions on which no action has been taken, a request for reports from the boards or departments to which they were referred.

Radel said that if such requests

Child, 3, Dies in Fall; Drunk Given 10 Days

Oakland, Calif., May 5 (AP)—A man from whose arms a 3-year-old girl fell to her death was sentenced to 10 days in jail yesterday for drunkenness.

Said Municipal Judge James S. Blaine:

"Maybe, your conscience will bother you all the rest of your life."

Carl G. Staff pleaded guilty to being drunk while riding on a three-wheel motorcycle with little Sandra Kelley in his arms. The child bounced off the machine to her death Monday night.

Lewis Keeley, Sandra's father, was driving the cycle. He told police he had swerved to avoid a truck.

were made on resolutions which failed to bring action or replies. "We'd be here a week," he noted that a light recently placed on Florence street extension, was a first compliance, after many such requests. Second Ward Alderman Benjamin Storms then called attention to the city's proposed long-range lighting plan. The survey to set up the plan he said will be made by General Electric at request of Central Hudson and without cost to the city. This, he said, would bring better results.

Other resolutions:

Ryan—that a stop-sign be erected at Delmont Place and Van Buren street, so that motorists entering Van Buren street will be sure that the street is clear before they drive on it. Traffic over Delmont Place and into Van Buren street, he said, has been traveling fast and children play in the area; that the ordinance designating Van Deusen street as one-way be revoked, and instead restrict parking on the north side of the street only.

The ordinance, he said, pertains only to the block from Broadway to Delmont Place.

Brandt—that the sewer at Hone and Abel streets be cleaned. He was informed by the Rev. Mr. Weaver, of the Progressive Baptist Church, that the sewer needs cleaning, he said, recent rains flooded the Sunday School room.

Norton—that holes on Chambers and East Pierpont street be filled while there's still something left of the road, and that catch basins in the sixth ward be cleaned.

Wenzel—that the public works department be requested to put a light at Fortuna and Pulaski streets where there is a steep hill and sharp turn.

Bavarian Dancers Will Perform Here

Traditional dances of Bavaria, the Schupplattler and other folk exhibitions, will be given at the Bavarian Night May Dance under the auspices of Kingston Maennerchor Inc. Saturday, May 15, at 8:30 p. m. at Elks Hall, Fair street.

These folk dancers will come to Kingston direct from engagements in the Yorkville section of New York city. Music for the evening will be played by Clementine Nessel and her ensemble. Tickets are now on sale for the event and may be purchased from any member of the Maennerchor.

Sirens Bring Boy

Elmira, May 5 (AP)—Firemen from nearby Southport played Pied Piper here with a wailing siren to find a missing boy. John Grover, 5, had been missing from home six hours when Sheriff Fred Duhal was notified. Duhal recalled that the Southport firemen were holding an open house for children. Duhal persuaded the fire ladies to take a truck with siren and bell sounding, through the boy's neighborhood. Grover came running. He had been playing with a pal about two blocks from home.

Three Injured in Hurley Crash

Three persons suffered minor injuries in a two-car collision at 4:25 p. m. yesterday on Route 209 in the village of Hurley, according to the Ulster county sheriff's office.

Deputies Chester Wolven and Delbert Sapp, who investigated, reported that a car operated by Ellen Mary Hadler, 49, of 37 South Cayuga road, Williamsville, was in collision with a passenger vehicle operated by Angus E. Rowse, 70, of Hurley. The Hadler car was traveling toward Kingston and the Rowse vehicle in the direction of Marbletown.

Mrs. Hadler, who received cuts about the face, told the deputies she would be treated by her private physician. Rowse received injuries to his left arm, the deputies said. They reported he would be treated by his own physician. Hobson J. Hadler, a passenger in the vehicle operated by Mrs. Hadler, also received cuts about the face and said he would be treated by his private physician, according to the deputies.

Investigating officers said Mrs. Hadler told them she found herself unable to turn the wheels of her car enough on the turn at the Hurley Church to keep on her side of the road. Her husband also tried to help her, she told deputies. Both cars suffered heavy damage.

Bloomington Fire Co. Plans Dance at Alpine

The Bloomington Fire Company will hold a dance at the Alpine, Saturday evening. The feature of the evening will be a comic newspaper published by the committee appointed for this occasion.

Arrangements and newspaper committee include: John Plonski, Warren Prandoni, Oscar Hahn, Raymond LeFever, Edward Bernhardt and Charles Reilly. The door committee consists of Herbert Faurate, Howard Slover and Bob Lund.

Dancing will begin at 9 p. m. The public is invited.

Greek Army to Be Cut

Athens, Greece, May 5 (AP)—The independent newspaper Ethnos reported today that Greece's 140,000-man army will be cut by one-fourth—35,000 men—as an economy measure. Quoting official sources, the paper said some of the savings would be spent on air bases and other defense installations. Defense spending now represents 47 per cent of the Greek government budget.

Mental Cases

four million dollars a year. Even a collapse in Soviet Russia or a worldwide ban on hydrogen bombs would not stem the tide of new patients, the state psychiatrists figure.

They say mental illness stems from deep-rooted personal conflicts, and people subject to them could find something to worry about in the Garden of Eden. A personality pattern set in the first five years of life can break out into psychosis at any time.

Nor, they say, have advances in the study of the mind broadened the definition of mental illness to account for the rising number of patients. The mentally ill are admitted to hospitals when they can no longer care for themselves—and that standard has been unchanged for years.

The number admitted to state hospitals slides up and down from year to year, and inmates leave daily as others crowd in. But at the end of each year the department finds it needs more beds.

In 1949, the patient population rose by 3,434; in 1950, by 3,409; in 1951, by 2,147; in 1952, by 2,236; and in 1953, by 2,963. Now the department figures it needs about 26,000 more beds than it has in its 27 institutions.

What is being done about it? The state embarked in 1949 on a 200-million-dollar construction program to provide 16,000 beds. Next fall the voters will be asked to approve a 350-million-dollar bond issue, expected to furnish still more beds.

And this year the state is opening a community mental hygiene program to try to head off at least a part of the flow of new patients.

Young Plans Appeal

New York, May 5 (AP)—Railroad financier Robert R. Young intends to appeal a court order that he give pre-trial testimony in a suit he filed in connection with his fight to win control of the New York Central Railroad. Young's attorney, Thomas F. Daly, said he would ask for a temporary stay of the order today. He said such a request is normally granted pending an Appellate Court hearing on a permanent stay. Young's legal move would hold up pre-trial examination in a suit by which he seeks to recover for the railroad the costs incurred by the Central management in lining up proxies against Young. Control of the railroad will be determined at the annual stockholders meeting on May 26.

Craps Game Raided

Ellenville state police raided a craps game at a building on Route 52 between Ellenville and Greenkill Park yesterday, making two arrests. Jack Kerness, 49, charged with operating a gambling establishment, and Edward King, 40, charged with running a game, paid fines of $50 each when arraigned before Justice of the Peace Irving Popple. Both men are from Ellenville.

Confidence Vote Expected
Paris, May 5 (AP)—Parliamentary observers expect Premier Joseph Laniel's government to win a National Assembly vote of confidence tomorrow unless the besieged fortress of Dien Bien Phu falls to the Vietminh rebels in the meantime. Laniel told the assembly last night it would have to look for a new government or postpone demands for a debate on Indochina beginning May 14. When deputies, including some of his own supporters, persisted in their call for the debate, the premier made the issue one of confidence in the cabinet.

Ulster Hose Gets Emergency Truck, Pump Equipment

A new, light emergency truck purchased by the commissioners of Ulster Hose fire district has been turned over to Ulster Hose Company No. 5, Inc., and has been placed in service, it was announced today by Fire Chief William Norton.

A pickup type vehicle, the truck has been equipped with portable pump, Indian pumps, Scott Air-Pac and similar emergency equipment.

Ulster Hose Company, a membership corporation, owns its own building and a 1,000-gallon tank truck purchased in 1953, without tax help from the town. The board of fire commissioners own the pumps and the new emergency truck.

Electronic Control Of Production Is Conference Subject

The trend toward push-button factories and offices in this automatic age will be explored at a conference sponsored by the New York State Department of Commerce on May 12 at Syracuse, it was announced today by W. Dale Swartzmiller, manager of the department's regional office here.

Industrial leaders and their engineering staffs in the Mid-Hudson area are invited to attend the conference, first of its kind ever sponsored by New York state.

"Our aim is to explore with the state's industrial leaders the practical uses to which automation can be put to improve productivity and strengthen the state's economic situation," Swartzmiller said. "Automation" is a newly coined word to designate the trend toward application of electronic controls to mechanizing production processes.

Dr. C. C. Hurd, director of the applied science division of International Business Machines Corporation, will be the speaker at the luncheon session. He will discuss the role of electronics in automation.

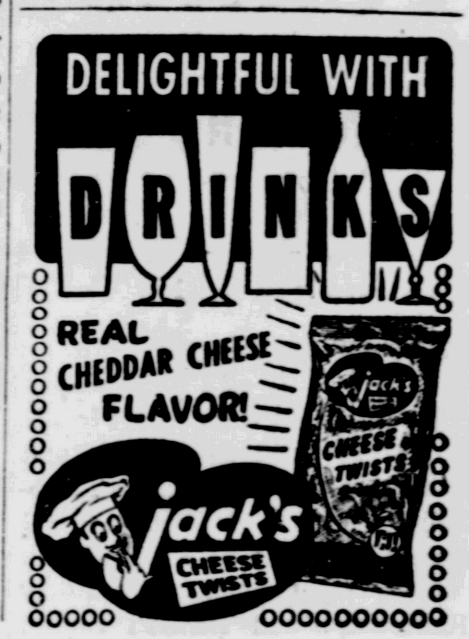

Other speakers include Kenneth R. Geiser of General Electric's engineering laboratory; John Diebold, editor of Automatic Control; Professor H. W. Martin of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute; L. A. Harr of Remington Rand's electronic computer department; H. A. Franke, automation manager of Ford Motor Company, and Carroll W. Boyce, associate editor of Factory Management and Maintenance. A panel discussion and question period has been scheduled.

Ninth Tells Her Troubles

New York, May 5 (AP)—Tommy Manville's ninth wife says her marriage ran into trouble two days after the wedding when the wealthy asbestos heir dug up huge pictures of his ex-wives and girl friends. There were about 20 of these pictures, most of them 10-by-12 feet, she said yesterday during her State Supreme Court suit for a separation and an allowance of $1,250 a month. At the same time, "he told me he had enough of marriage," Mrs. Anita Roddy-Eden Manville testified. "He got out a gun and threatened to kill me," she continued. The couple were married July 10, 1952. Mrs. Manville said she first met her husband in the spring of that year when she was hired at $1,000 a week plus expenses to write his biography. The trial resumes late today.

Tennis Varsity Beats Monticello High, 4-1

Kantowitz, Smith Impress in Singles

The Kingston High school tennis varsity sparked in a dank and dismal background to crush Monticello, 4-1, in a delayed seasonal opener yesterday at Hutton Park.

Stellar performances by Smith Kantowitz and Richard Smith, the No. 1 and No. 3 players, respectively, highlighted the Maroon's performance and raised hopes for a stout showing against Newburgh Academy this afternoon at the Hill City.

Kantowitz polished off their opponents with loss of only one game each. Big Marty ran over Harold Horowitz, the Monties' No. 1 ace, 6-1, 6-0. Smith routed J. Finkler by a similar margin.

Monticello won the No. 2 singles when Robert Trachtenburg, the basketball star, upset Jack Schoonmaker, Kingston's No. 2 player, in straight sets, 6-2, 6-3.

Win Two Doubles

Kantowitz and Smith ran over Horowitz and Trachtenburg, 6-1, 6-1.

George Baechtle and Mark Silk launched their season with a victory over Finkler and Glick in a hard fought match, 7-5, 6-4.

(Singles)

Marty Kantowitz, K. defeated Harold Horowitz, M. 6-1, 6-0.

Bob Trachtenburg, M. d Jack Schoonmaker, K. 6-2, 6-3.

J. Finkler, M. d Richard Smith, K. 6-0, 6-1.

(Doubles)

Smith-Kantowitz, K. d Horowitz-Trachtenburg, M. 6-1, 6-1.

Baechtle-Silk, K. d Finkler-Glick, M. 7-5, 6-4.

Musial's Bat To Hall of Fame

St. Louis, May 4 (P)—The bat with which Stan Musial hit five home runs Sunday will go into baseball's Hall of Fame museum.

Musial today agreed to donate the bat at the request of Sid Keener, national director of the museum at Cooperstown, N. Y.

Already in the museum is the pair of shoes worn by Musial when he scored his 100th run last season—the tenth year he performed the feat.

Twaalfskill Club Opener Set May 15

Twaalfskill Golf Club today announced plans for the formal opening of the 1954 season on Saturday, May 15.

A cocktail hour will follow the regular Saturday afternoon events for the formal opening.

The club's kitchen facilities, operated this season by Mrs. Wanda Hendricks, will be open to members starting Saturday, May 8, daily from 11 a. m. through the dinner hour.

The club's complete golf and social calendar will be announced in the next few days.

Directors to Meet

The regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Lake Katrine Rod and Gun Club, Inc., will be held at 8 o'clock tonight at the clubhouse. Several important club matters are to be discussed. All members of the entertainment committee are also urged to be present. The regular club meeting will be held next Tuesday at 8 o'clock with movies and refreshments following the meeting.

The Phils-Cardinals struggle ran 4 hours 31 minutes, finished up in the early hours of this morning and saw a major league record set for the total number of pitchers.

The Clubs Tossed 15 Assorted Pitchers into the Marathon

Starting with two of the league's best—Harvey Hadd and Robin Roberts—and winding up with Hal White for the Cards and Murry Dickson for the Phils.

Dickson got the credit, his fourth success against one loss since moving to the Phils from the Pirates. Ellis (Cot) Deal, seventh of the record-tying eight St. Louis pitchers, was punned with the loss as the Phils poured across four runs in the 11th.

The deciding run came on a walk, a single by Earl Torgeson and a sacrifice fly. Singles by Granny Hamner and Bobby Morgan and a double by Johnny Wyrostek produced three more.

Warren Spahn struck out 12 Pirates in the Milwaukee triumph which came against Max Surkont, traded away to the Pirates by the Braves during the winter. Joe Adeock homered for Milwaukee.

A single by Joe Demaestri followed by a walk and a single by Gus Zernial gave the Athletics the run they needed to whip the Cleveland Indians who had won six in a row. Six of the eight hits off Trice went for extra bases, including a home run by Al Rosen, but the rookie stayed out of trouble most of the way.

Milwaukee Climbs From Cellar Amid Snow and 'Jingle Bells'

BY BEN PHLEGAR

Associated Press Sports Writer

When you're in last place and you've got a team in town you think you can beat, you play the game even if it snows.

That seems to be the current theory in Milwaukee. The Braves, who have had a rough time this spring, beat Pittsburgh 6-1 last night in a game interrupted in the sixth inning by a miniature blizzard.

The victory pulled the Braves out of last place and dropped the Pirates to the bottom.

Almost every spring one or more of the major league games are postponed because of snow. But the records fail to show one that was started, halted by a snowstorm and then resumed.

Although the temperature was within five degrees of freezing at game time, 12,383 of the Milwaukee faithful paid their way into the park and had such a good time during the snow that they serenaded the chilled players with "Jingle Bells."

The wintry blasts that couldn't halt action in Milwaukee knocked three other games from yesterday's schedule and rain washed out a fourth. It was too cold for Brooklyn at Chicago, and New York at Cincinnati; too cold and wet for Baltimore at New York and too wet for Detroit at Boston.

In games that were played, the Chicago White Sox increased their American League lead to a game and a half over Detroit by whipping Washington 8-6. Bob Trice won his fourth straight as Philadelphia shaded Cleveland 3-2 and the Philadelphia Phillies whipped St. Louis 14-10 in 11 innings.

State's Jamaica Take

Increases 11 Per Cent

Albany, May 5 (P)—New York state netted $4,807,321 of a total $51,291,377 wagered at the 21-day spring thoroughbred meeting at Jamaica race track.

The State Tax Department said yesterday that the state's take from the opening meeting showed a proportionate increase of 11.1 per cent over last year's spring meeting.

In a 30-day opener in 1953, the total handle amounted to $73,336,667 of which the state got $6,179,721.

Yonkers Feature

Yonkers, May 5 (P)—Russ Valles Key took the lead with Power Chief at the half mile and scored a length and a quarter victory with the 7-year-old pacer in last night's feature at Yonkers Raceway. Power Chief was clocked in 2:08 in beating out Joseadale Dandy, piloted by Stanley Danner and Hannah Roscroft, driven by George Phalen. The return on the favored Power Chief was $4.30, $3.20 and $2.80.

Army Is Apparently Guilty Of Coddling Star Athletes Chairman Hess Believes

Washington, May 5 (P)—Chairman Hess (R-Ohio) of a House Armed Services Subcommittee said today "it appears the Army has pleaded guilty" to charges of "coddling" star athletes after inducting them.

Nevertheless, Hess said his subcommittee intends to explore the service histories of Dick Brodowski, Boston Red Sox pitcher, and nine other top athletes in public hearings starting today (1 p. m., EST). The sessions may run three days.

Hess said in an interview that Hank Bauer, New York Yankee outfielder, "is not involved" in the probe, adding, "I understand he has quite a favorable record."

Bauer, a World War 2 Marine veteran, was first named, then withdrawn from a supplemental list of 10 stars which Hess made public yesterday.

Hess' subcommittee admittedly made the mistake of listing Bauer, when he said he meant Hank Sauer of the Chicago Cubs. The name confusion came in the release of a second list of 10 stars. This second group may not figure actively in Hess' probe.

Bauer saw combat service with the Marines in World War 2. But acknowledgement of the error didn't mollify New York Yankees officials, who charged that the subcommittee "recklessly bandied around names" and "placed innocent persons under a cloud without checking thoroughly."

In Chicago, Sauer denied that he was coddled while in service, and he pointed out that he served in the Coast Guard, not the army. "We were all tabbed for sea duty," he said, "but I didn't pass a physical examination for it."

Hess said Brodowski's case probably would be heard first. The pitcher, still in service, was assigned to Ft. Dix, N. J.

Sauer said he did play on a Coast Guard baseball team at Curtis Bay, Md., but that "no body was coddled in our place."

Maj. Forest A. Jones, public information officer at Fort Eustis, Va., said it wasn't true that Larry Hennessey, a former Villanova College basketball star, had been given special consideration there. Hess stressed that none of the athletes named is under suspicion, and that the subcommittee is probing only the army's handling of their assignments. He added that any of the athletes could request to be heard, but present plans are not to ask them to testify.

The course of the hearings probably will be influenced by "whether the army convinces the subcommittee it intends to carry out" this policy, Hess added.

Brig. Gen. Herbert B. Powell and other witnesses have been summoned to tell how the army handled the first group of 10 athletes, whose records have been probed by subcommittee investigators.

Hess said Brodowski's case probably would be heard first. The pitcher, still in service, was assigned to Ft. Dix, N. J.

Amateur Boxing Card Stars Taylor May 15th

New England Welter To Meet New Yorker

Amateur boxing returns to the municipal auditorium on Saturday, May 15, when Adirondack AAU champions square off against New York Golden Glovers in an eight-bout card sanctioned by the Adirondack AAU.

The program, which features some of the best amateur talent in the country, is being promoted by Fred Davis as a benefit for the Glascio Athletic Club.

The club sponsors teams in the Glascio Little League and a squad in the Babe Ruth League at Saugerties.

Ben Becker, chairman of the Adirondack AAU's boxing division, will assemble the upstate squad. The well known Pete Molloy, Olympic boxing coach who has handled the Daily News teams in

New York for several years, will be in charge of the Metropolitan boxers.

Taylor on Card

Top ranking boxer on the card is Bill Taylor, of Springfield, Mass., the New England AAU welterweight champion, who will meet a New York opponent. Taylor is the son of Bill Taylor, Sr., a former professional boxer.

Another five-rounder announced by Becker pairs Joe Forlano, of Utica, against Ken House, Amsterdam, the Adirondack champion in the 175-pound division.

Also listed in five-rounders are Eddie Kithcart, the Glascio flash, who won the 126-pound Novice title last year and the Open crown this year in the Adirondack tournament. His opponent from New York will be announced later.

Joe Latella, of Utica, the Adirondack 132-pound kingpin, is also listed for a five rounder against a New York foe.

Cira Bows Out

Danny Cira, of Utica, who is considered by boxing experts the best white 147-pound amateur in the country, had to bow out of the card because of an injury suffered last Monday at the AAU nationals in Boston.

The makeup of the three-round bouts and opponents for Kithcart and Latella will be announced later.

Basilio's Manager Charges Sidetrack

Syracuse, May 5 (P)—John DeJohn, manager of Carmen Basilio, has threatened court action to prevent the Johnny Saxton-Kid Gavilan welterweight title bout scheduled for late June or July in Philadelphia.

In a telegram last night to New York state, Pennsylvania and national athletic officials, DeJohn complained that Basilio, rated by Ring Magazine and the National Boxing Assn. as the No. 1 welterweight contender, was being "sidetracked."

Ty Cobb made his debut with the Detroit Tigers late in the 1905 season. But it was 1908 before the Georgia Peach played in an opening day game.

F. Bruno Fires 579

Frank Bruno yielded high single honors to Frank Bartroff (233) in the Central Rec League last night, but had a run of 201-183-195 for high series of 579.

Ronnie Mauro also was up in the high singles with 233 and F. J. Provenzano slammed a 571 triple.

The scores: Hamburger Paradise (3) — Frank Bruno 201-183-195, J. S. Provenzano 472, Frank Spada 496, F. J. Provenzano 571; 908-864-898-2670.

Herzog Supply Co. (0) — Eggert Maxwell 202-522; 829-734-757-2314.

Lincoln Park Inn (2) — Floyd Crantek 509; 739-850-732-2321.

Kingston Heating (1) — Allen Hovey 488, Eddie Heins 481; 723-733-772-2228.

Capri (2) — Robert Zech 213-538, Sparks Greco 551, Ronnie Mauro 233-567; 950-858-796-2604.

Haber's Grill (1) — Len Ward 498, Jack Haber 457, Hank Grube 201-553, Don McConnell 533; 816-823-847-2486.

Vanderlyn Battery (2) — Earl Sleight 203-571, Ed Auchmody 456, Leo Stauble 481, Frank Bartroff 234-572; 842-892-804-2538.

Chester (1) — Bill Johnson 200-538, Fred Schryver 223-545; 737-747-881-2365.

No Return Clause In Gavilan Title Bout With Saxton

Philadelphia, May 4 (P)—Kid Gavilan will defend his welterweight title against Johnny Saxton in late June or early July in Philadelphia under a contract that does not assure him a return bout should he lose.

Promoter Herman Taylor announced he would stage the 15 round title contest at Connie Mack Stadium in conjunction with the International Boxing Club of New York.

The lack of a return bout clause — quite unusual these days in title fight contracts — pointed out the possibility that Gavilan might quit the ring if he loses or that he was taking the fourth-ranking welterweight title contender lightly.

Gavilan hasn't defended the 147-pound crown since he won a decision over Johnny Bratton in Chicago last Nov. 13. His last outing was an unsuccessful April 2 effort to win the middleweight title from Carl "Bobo" Olson.

Strike Threat Hangs at Yonkers

Yonkers, May 5 (P) — Officials of Yonkers Raceway and representatives of the Standard-Bred Owners Association were scheduled to meet again today in a last-ditch effort to head off a strike scheduled for tomorrow night.

State harness racing czar George Monaghan met with the two yesterday for two hours, but no progress was made. The owners want more money and the track has raised the purses 30 per cent. The Association asks 40 per cent.

Monaghan requested the two organizations to meet with him again. Only 66 entries have been filed for tomorrow's racing, but track officials said they might be able to run off the program. Normally about 150 entries are made.

The highest batting average ever attained by a member of the Washington Senators was .379 by Goose Goslin in 1928.

How less than $3 could have saved a $75 carpenter's bill!

Bev Port Pounds 548 Singles in WIBC Meet

Kingston Lumber keglettes failed to place in the team division of the WIBC Nationals at Rochester over the weekend.

But the Lumberettes did crash the prize list in some of the minor divisions.

In the team shooting, the locals rolled 2298 in the WIBC and 2392 at the state meet.

The mother-daughter combination of Rita La Rocca and Beverly Port cracked 1016 in the state doubles. Other prize winners figure to be Eleanor Singer (509) and Nellie Alverson (511) in the state singles. Alverson shot 216 solo.

Mrs. Port shot a hefty 548 triple, with 220-149-179, in the WIBC singles and would have gone higher but for some untimely splits. Nellie Alverson shot 507.

Mrs. Port rolled a 1568 all-events, with 498 team event, 522 doubles and 548 singles, for a 176-plus average, likely to bring her some money.

Top Mare Brings $13,000 at Saratoga

Saratoga Springs, May 5 (P)—An automobile dealer who bought his first harness horse last fall has boosted his standardbred string to 18.

Kyle F. Lunman of Adams picked up three trotters and two pacers for a total of $17,650 yesterday at Saratoga's 11th annual spring standardbred sale.

An eight-year-old pacer, Jose-dale Alate, drew top price in the sale. William E. Miller of Washington, D. C., president of Roosevelt Raceway in Maryland, paid $13,400 for the mare, who has done 1:59 for a mile on a one-mile track.

Honolulu — Ramon Fuentes, 147%, Los Angeles, outpointed Frank Fernandez, 146%, Honolulu, 10.

Pitchers Ted Gray, Ray Herbert and outfielder Don Lund of the Tigers were born in Detroit.

Nelson Enters Ardmore Open

Ardmore, Okla., May 5 (P)—A champion-laden field of golfers tested the Dornick Hills Country Club course today, anxiously awaiting tomorrow's first round of the Ardmore Open tournament—one of the richest in the nation.

The third annual tournament brought out a field of 240 players with 191 participating in a qualifying round yesterday.

Heading the list of links luminaries are Byron Nelson, the former National Open and PGA champion of Roanoke, Tex., and Denny Shute of Detroit, former PGA and British Open titlist.

Another topnotcher in the field is Frank Stranahan, one of the nation's best amateurs of the past decade.

AT A SPECIAL TERM OF THE COUNTY COURT, State of New York, County of Ulster, at the Court House in the City of Kingston on the 27th day of April, 1954. Present: HON. JOHN M. CASHIN, Judge—IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF EMILY JOSEPHINE ECKLEY, nee CHIMERA FOR LEAVE TO CHANGE HER NAME TO EMILY JOSEPHINE ECKLEY.

On reading and filing the petition of Carmela Giuseppe Eckley, nee Chimera, certified the 21st day of April, 1954, praying for a change of name of petitioner, it being requested that she be permitted to assume the Christian name Emily Josephine in the place and stead of her present Christian name, and the Court being satisfied that said petition is true and it appearing from the said petition and the Court being satisfied that there is no reasonable objection to the change of the name as proposed.

NOW, on motion of William L. Browning, Attorney for the said petitioner, it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED, that the said Carmela Giuseppe Eckley, nee Chimera, be, and she hereby is, authorized to assume the name of Emily Josephine Eckley in place and stead of her present name on the 7th day of June, 1954, upon her complying with the provisions of Article 12 of the Civil Rights Law, namely, that the petitioner cause this order and the papers upon which it was granted to be filed and entered in the office of the Clerk of the County of Ulster within ten (10) days of the date hereof; and, within the next ten (10) days after entry hereof, cause a copy hereof to be published once in Kingston Daily Freeman a newspaper published in the County of Ulster; and within forty (40) days of the date hereof file proof of such publication by affidavit in support thereof, to the undersigned, Bessie Mitchell, the Administratrix of the estate of said deceased, at the office of her attorney, Lloyd R. OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream

By AL MCCLANE

(Fishing Editor)

The mangrove snapper is a credit to the fraternity of salt water snappers. He's a con man of many talents, dedicated to the sole purpose of driving fishermen nuts.

This snapper is not big, he is not brassy, and I wouldn't trust the mangrove is handsome, but lurking in the shaded water beneath a bridge or dock, he'll reduce tourists to driving idiots. Nothing looks to be an easier mark than the dizzy little character who swims in endless circles.

One day in Florida last winter after four hours and at a cost of

THE EXPERTS SAY:

"We haven't seen such beautiful lumber in years!"

"These houses are better built than those costing many times what these are costing folks."

"Your houses are stronger than any we've seen anywhere."

"I've never seen so much lumber in any similar houses."

"NORTHERN HOMES certainly gives a lot more for your money."

"The best window weather-stripping job I've ever seen."

"Your houses are so well built that EVERYONE should know about them, no matter how expensive a home a person intends to build."

"Your standardized panels amaze me by their very strength, simplicity, and adaptability to almost any type, size or style of house in all price classes."

"Because of the unbelievable speed in erection and the tremendous saving in time and labor expense it seems utterly a waste of time and money to build ANY HOUSE by any other method."

"I can see now whereby we can erect many times more houses with our one small crew in far less time."

"IT SEEMS THAT EVERYONE SHOULD GIVE YOUR HOUSES FIRST CONSIDERATION BEFORE BUILDING A HOUSE OF ANY KIND, OR IN ANY PRICE CLASS!"

TWO WEEKS DELIVERY NOW
Dun & Bradstreet said in N. Y. Times, Northern Homes were the best constructed of factory-built homes in the Eastern States.

$240, I caught a mangrove snapper which weighed one pound soaking wet. I fed him four dozen shrimp, which at the prevailing rate of 60 cents a dozen wasn't exactly tactical.

A Wily Suggestion
In fact, my wife suggested that we buy some kingfish steaks which were very much cheaper. A neighboring bridge fisherman suggested dropping a few unhooked shrimp to the snapper and whet his appetite. They were accepted eagerly.

With his appetite primed, my snapper made a few turns around the barnacle piling to adjust his belt buckle and then settled to the bottom where shrimp were apparently falling over themselves. My neighbor advised a constant rain of shrimp which seemed like a good idea, so I emptied Momma's bucket during the next few hours.

At first I thought our ruse had worked. But before I could strike, the snapper would spit the shrimp out and swim off. I tried striking him the instant he picked the bait up, but then he didn't have it in his mouth. He wore it like a moustache. When I was down to the last shrimp somebody told me how to catch the snapper.

The Real Secret
Cast out the bait and let it rest on the bottom. Nothing will happen for perhaps five to ten minutes, then suddenly the bait will be picked up, carried a few feet and then dropped. Don't try to hook the fish when that happens.

In a minute or two the bait will be grabbed again and right there the hook should be set. He's an early evening and night feeder, and if you want to catch him it's necessary to conform to his feeding hours. It's wasted effort to fish for him at other times.

My Greatest Shot
By SAM SNEAD

If you were to listen to the jokes my fellow professionals make, I'm known for a powerful lot of things.

But it's a matter of fact that I drive as long a ball as there is around. Now, this isn't telling tall tales over a cracker barrel.

It could come as a surprise, however, when I tell you that the shot I consider my all-time best was a little old chip shot.

The shot came during the 1942 PGA championship, which was held at Seaview Country Club at Absecon, outside of Atlantic City.

It was on the 11th hole and I was two up and two to play in the final match with Jim Turnesa, a guy you never do beat easily—if you beat him.

I got up to within chip-shot range, and I'm standing around waiting for Turnesa to make his fairway iron shot. As I waited, I said to myself, "Man, why not go for the hole with this one? Why play it extra safe and look for that putt? Why not kill the match off right here?"

I took my chip shot and hit right for the cup and the ball ran right for the hole like a scalded dog and wound up right plumb in the cup. The shot gave me my first major tournament victory.

George B. Harman is the choice of several baseball men for the City League presidency, if he will accept the post.

Harman says it isn't so much accepting as having the time to do a good job. The former semi-pro star has mapped a busy schedule for the 1954 season for his Colonial Merchants and figures that baseball and his business will keep him too busy.

"Bo" Gill suggests that maybe Jim Hearn and not Al Corwin should have been named out to Minneapolis by the Giants. And whatever happened to the Say-Hey Kid (Willie Mays)?

Flotsam and Jetsam:
Second annual Mid-Hudson Rowing Regatta scheduled July 11 at Poughkeepsie with 10 events expected to attract top rowing clubs in the Eastern U. S. People who call the Cleveland Browns pass-happy should look at the statistics, which show Otto Graham threw less than any regular quarterback in the league last season. And completed more than all but George Blanda of the Bears.

Ball Funeral Home of Yonkers leading Dutchess Sweepstakes with 3353 slam and the last weekend coming up. A few more untimely days of rain and the KHS spring athletic schedule could get fouled up the worst in years. The stock car racing madness resumes Saturday at Rhinebeck Speedway. Pete Bruck and Al Deegan of Kingston are members of the Union College varsity lacrosse team. Both first year men, Bruck is a reserve attacker, Deegan a reserve midfielder. The Dutchmen are playing a 10-game schedule highlighted by meetings with Cornell, Hobart, Dartmouth and RPI.

Old Pros Retire:
Three veteran members of the Kingston Bowling Association's executive committee—Mannie Colao, Jake Chichelsky and Jack Blinder—retired this week. All three gave distinguished service to the organization and were among the town's top bowling enthusiasts. The 1954-55 makeup of the KBA's executive board is one of the best in years and the notable victories scored by the independent slate again emphasized that nomination and endorsement by the KBA is not a guarantee of election. We think it's time for both sides to close ranks and work in close harmony. We suggest an early meeting between the KBA, the two bowling proprietors and the KWBA to straighten out the difficulties surrounding the recent hassles over alley dates for the KBA. The city tournament entry slumped sharply this year, because all parties concerned were unable, or unwilling, to resolve their differences. If that happens again, the future of the KBA tournament is in distinct jeopardy.

My Greatest Shot
By SAM SNEAD

If you were to listen to the jokes my fellow professionals make, I'm known for a powerful lot of things.

But it's a matter of fact that I drive as long a ball as there is around. Now, this isn't telling tall tales over a cracker barrel.

It could come as a surprise, however, when I tell you that the shot I consider my all-time best was a little old chip shot.

The shot came during the 1942 PGA championship, which was held at Seaview Country Club at Absecon, outside of Atlantic City.

It was on the 11th hole and I was two up and two to play in the final match with Jim Turnesa, a guy you never do beat easily—if you beat him.

I got up to within chip-shot range, and I'm standing around waiting for Turnesa to make his fairway iron shot. As I waited, I said to myself, "Man, why not go for the hole with this one? Why play it extra safe and look for that putt? Why not kill the match off right here?"

I took my chip shot and hit right for the cup and the ball ran right for the hole like a scalded dog and wound up right plumb in the cup. The shot gave me my first major tournament victory.

Now you Know!
The answers to everyday insurance problems*
By HERMAN J. EATON

QUESTION: Is it really necessary to incur the expense of a safe deposit box in which to store insurance policies? Doesn't anyone keep duplicates which would be available if my policies burned up in a fire?

ANSWER: Copies of "all your insurance policies are made and kept in safe places but, strange as it may seem, there are many instances where home owners have either died or have forgotten the existence of their policies and no claim has been made for fire losses. Safe Deposit Vaults are well worth their small cost in the security and ease of mind they provide.

* If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be NO CHARGE or OBLIGATION OF ANY KIND.

Greece Has New Quakes

Athens, Greece, May 5 (AP)—New earthquakes today rocked Greece's central province of Thessaly, still groggy from shocks last Friday which killed 24 persons and caused damage estimated at 10 million dollars. Press reports said the latest tremors destroyed the village of Sourli, near Sofadhes, which bore the brunt of last week's quake. Damage also was reported in Sofadhes, Karditsa and Trikala, the reports said. The report said two strong shocks struck the area last night and continued today, toppling a church steeple in Karditsa and damaging buildings in Trikala. Panic followed the rumbling tremors, the press reports said, but there was no mention of any casualties.
